

Tuesday, December 22 of 2015

DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS??

In order for that which you consider necessary for your lives to manifest, you must first, in your own hearts, contemplate the needs of the world, of your fellow beings, and of the Kingdoms of Nature.

God, who is perfect, will always send His protection and care to those who care for their brothers and sisters - their fellow beings and the least of them. The Lord has a preference for manifesting the needs of those that do not think of themselves and who place others first, before all things.

When something does not flow and does not manifest in your lives, ask yourselves why, and for what reason you desire such a thing.

Remember that you must forget yourselves every day, and allow the Lord to work His wonderful miracle in your lives and pour His infinite Graces upon them.

Do not limit the Power of God, asking Him for what you need, all the time; before this, observe what a neighbor most needs, and provide it. Some will need your respect; others, your obedience; some, your love; others, your silence; some, your words; others, your most secret prayers.

Some will need you to pray for them; others, that you pray with them. Some will need material things; others, symbolic acts, filled with the love which holds the true intention of that action. Many will need your example; for this reason, observe the needs of others, all the time.

If you lived according to charity and fraternity, not only regarding material things, but also regarding spiritual things, you would find a short path toward God and achieve all that you always wanted, and yet never achieved, because you looked for them along the wrong paths. The Graces of Spirit are achieved through spiritual paths. Virtues are gained when virtues are given. Graces are received by those who open themselves to live through the granting of Grace.

Learn, little children of God, to observe life from this other point of view. When you are faced with a great opportunity, seek who is most in need, and then you will see how it will come to you, without you even realizing it.

The humble and poor of self are the richest in the Kingdom of Heaven because, by not wanting anything for themselves, God gives them everything, for within their hands, the Divine Benefit will reach the right place.

Never forget what I have told you today. Practice these words, every day. Think of your neighbor, pray for them, act for them, live to give of yourselves, and God will make bridges of your consciousnesses, so that His Graces may reach the world.

I leave you My Peace and My example of perpetual giving of self, because My Most Chaste Heart drinks today from the Celestial Founts, but I always searched for this Water in order to satiate those who are thirsty. Everything I received from God is to give to His creatures, to bless His creation, and to make perfect that which comes from Perfection itself.

Your father and companion, that lives in perpetual charity,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph