Message for the Special Apparition in the Marian Center of Espíritu Santo, transmitted by Mary, Universal Mother and Solar Mother to the visionary Sister Lucía de Jesús

The doors of the Seventh Heaven are open so that humanity can approach the gifts that will allow it to cross the threshold that separates it from the Great Kingdom.

My children, with joy I come to the world to bring to your lives an opportunity of redemption and permanent renewal. Know that to achieve the fulfillment of the Plans of God it is necessary to renew oneself by the adherence to this Plan every day.

In this last time, all the winds blow for the strength of the soldiers of God, self-summoned for these times. Many can think that the winds blow to make them lose and give up carrying the flag that they have been holding in their hands for so long, but I tell you, My children, that all the winds and storms you have to experience in this time, within and outside of you, will forge the soldier of Christ so that the victory of the Lord within your souls can last throughout the centuries and be strengthened for when the true time comes to establish the good and the kingdom of the Universal Love in all spaces of this infinite.

Therefore, do not get discouraged in the face of difficulties. Know that the greater the proof, the greater will be the inner strength and maturing, and also the more love of the Plan of God will be molded in your essences and in all the particles of your beings.

You must experience a battle on all the levels of consciousness in this time, because even the smallest cell of your bodies will be purified so that all life that inhabits the Superior Life is adhered to what must be built in this world, and that is why I am here, consecrating and consoling you every day.

I come to the world tirelessly, because I know the greatness that will come from the soul that opens itself to truly experience the Divine Purpose within itself.

I know the Plan of the Highest, My Beloveds, because He was gestated in My Universal Womb. I know what the Thought of God is for each of His creatures, therefore I can speak to your heart about the steps that each one must take at this time to achieve redemption and peace, principles without which the Greater Plan cannot be fulfilled.

My Beloveds, through My Words I mold the Law of the Spirit of God so that you can understand it and more than that, so that you can enter into the higher universe of greater understanding to which these Words lead you.

Let me permeate you with My Divine and universal Word and open your heart and consciousness so that I can make you understand My Words and I can lead you to the purpose for which they were spoken today.

I called you to the Marian Center of Holy Spirit with the purpose of definitely consecrating it to My Heart and thus, to hand over to humanity, one more door of salvation, because from now on, it will not be the laws of Earth that will govern this place, it will be the Divine Laws and the Power of My Heart of Light that will mold the Will of the Lord in each thing. And, for every soul that approaches here I want the doors to be opened for them, knowing that you are opening the doors to their redemption.

Each word that is pronounced among you in this place must be My Word of life, that descends upon the most simple things and strengthens the union and fraternity among the beings at each moment. Each action that you experience must be an act of union with your neighbor and with God, so that the souls may receive the opportunity to mold the impulses that they receive from the Highest in the whole life of matter.

My Beloveds, I want to make this Marian Center a door to the Seventh Heaven, and make each one of you, the gatekeepers that lead the souls to a higher reality. May this be the refuge for the souls that search so much and never manage to find the Divine Life.

I love you and bless you under the Light of My Universal Mantle.

Be happy and rejoice because a new time must come for all. Always renew yourselves before My Presence, so you will not miss the opportunity to follow the path of your evolution and you will not stop in this material world.

I am more than you can see, feel or understand, but if you do not open yourselves to discover the power of My Presence, and just hold on to what the world teaches you about Mary, you will never find the path for a superior life.

Let My Words sound in your hearts and listen to them, each time, as if you know nothing, for if you think you already know everything about what I say to you, you will miss the opportunity to discover the impulses stored between the lines of My Words.

Under the Light of the Spirit of God, I bless you and I consecrate you for all of eternity.

Mary, Mother and Universal Queen
