Daily Message received the Commune of Castel Volturno, Campania, Italy, transmitted by Saint Joseph to the visionary Sister Lucía de Jesús

May peace be present in the heart of all the servers of Christ.

Today, children, My Heart is especially following the start of the humanitarian mission in the Middle East and in Africa.

My paternal love gives shelter to and supports the hearts and the consciousness of each missionary so that on this trajectory of the arrival in Lebanon, they may lose all fear of serving and of loving and allow their souls to receive the Grace of the presence of the Spirit of God, which will have them come to know the power of love and of wisdom, so that they may know how to act with humility and with gratitude, no matter what they are called to serve in.

May the heart of each missionary be filled by the pure aspiration of accomplishing the Divine Will and that, in service, they may consciously rescue the values of love and of hope that many times were lost within beings.

Go with an open heart to those very ancient lands, where the history of human evolution began and, through your actions and prayers, seek to rescue the codes of purity, of peace, and of Mercy that are kept there so that one day they may blossom and bring forth the new human being, the new humanity, which will be reborn from the suffering transformed into hope, and from hope transformed into love.

Everything happens on the levels of spirit when hearts simply become willing to receive, multiply and distribute Divine Grace.

Pray, children, and live the experience of being instruments of God in this world.

You have My blessing for that.

Your Father and Friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
