WEEKLY MESSAGE OF MARY, ROSE OF PEACE, TRANSMITTED IN THE CITY OF SAO PAULO, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

Dear son, dearest daughter,

Conceive, in this time, of a meek heart such as that of Jesus, free of judgments, criticism, and condemnations.

Conceive within you My flame of peace and free yourself from all claims and demands.

Conceive of the humility of being similar to My Son in His Works, in His charity, and in His Infinite Mercy.

Do not reject what you live, and accept with fervor that the time of your inner death has come.

Submit yourself without punishments to the rules of love and make all that you have still limited within yourself germinate.

Freedom of spirit is achieved through first forgiving yourself and then all others. There is no peace in the soul without a reconciliation with life.

The tests that your consciousness embraces are the stairway for being able to take a greater step, unknown to your possibilities.

Let My Son model the new being and empty yourself, fully empty yourself, every day, showing the Universe that you know how to live love, rather than just understand it.

Rather than watching you walk aimlessly, I hold out My hand to you so that you can clasp it strongly and save yourself from the danger and from the traps that My adversary inflicts.

If you know the power of My Immaculate Heart a little, I assure you that you will learn to come out of yourself to serve others and you will find the so awaited hour of ascension.

Do not let anything external bring you down; take each experience as the opportunity of dying to yourself a little more every day.

You know that redemption starts by being true to yourself; do not seek either external answers or benefits; allow the fluid of spirit to always show you the exit.

If you do not know how to begin, start by loving that which seems impossible to love, forgiving what you would never want to forgive. Do as I did for you and for humanity; I had already forgiven you in holy humility before you crucified the Son of God.

Deeply think about and do not set yourself apart from those you do not understand. True surrender will occur through your humbling yourself before the sinner or the judge who condemns your life.

Imitate the silence of My Son and have confidence, because above all Love will triumph.

Accept what you live with joyfulness. Fly, fly high, and even if you do not manage it, I will take you to the Kingdom of My Lord.

I thank you for responding to My call.

In humility,

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace
