

Friday, December 21 of 2018

DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Life should be permeated by transparency, transparency while serving, giving your best to your fellow being and, at the same time, recognizing your own limitations, not to offer more than or less than what you can give.

Transparency while praying, being before God with the sincerity of your hearts, not because God does not see you as you are, but because this is a moment for you to recognize your own debilities, and to be impelled toward transformation by Divine Grace.

Transparency in being so that, day by day, you let your fellow being see what you really are, and your relationships with your brothers and sisters in the world be permeated by the spirit of truth and sincerity, the one that must be full of the Love of God.

Transparency through the word, for your mouth to only pronounce the truth and not want to increase or diminish the facts, but to only show what is real, so that by the word that creates, the truth is shaped within the life of beings.

Be transparent in love, opening to welcome yourselves and the fellow being as they are, not wanting to transform your own essence into something that belongs to others, nor wanting the fellow beings to be as you want.

Be transparent, mostly before God, because it is in the sincere dialogue with the Father that you will learn to love the truth.

You have My blessing for this.

Your Father and Friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph