DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED IN THE FRATERNITY COMMUNITY, REDEMPTION HOUSE, URUGUAY TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

My dears ones,

Follow My footprints, those which indicate the awaited return of the King and Savior.

Today I call you to remain perpetually in My Sacred and Blessed Heart. Children, I greatly wish to be within you for longer, but you must allow for this, so that I may accomplish My Will, the Will of the Creator God. Follow Me in absolute and complete trust because I have already waited to call My Apostles after so long.

Now, I want Apostles of love, Apostles of redemption, Apostles who live and give the example of celestial charity, which can help dissolve the pain of many and cure the hearts of others. Dear ones, today you are in My Glory, because you have first passed through My Mercy, so that today My Priestly Consciousness could be present, in this house of peace and redemption.

Like Zacchaeus, you have opened the door for Me to be able to share the Bread of Life and Love. No longer look at how much you have fallen in the past, just believe that My Savior Hope which will come as a cosmic and universal power from the universe.

My companions,

I wait for you to be empty of yourselves, absent of yourselves, so that in this time of great necessity your hearts may recognize, even if for an instant, the essence of each brother and sister who will pass before you, each day. I hope that you give me your lives so that My Mercy may reveal to you the Glory that is guarded with so much love in the Heavens.

I announce, with joy and love, the arising of this house, the Plaza of the Mercy of Christ King and Savior, where pilgrims, servers, collaborators and followers of Mine will be able to find Me in a simple place, which will be dedicated to the prayer of the Divine Mercy. This sacred place that today is consecrated by My Heart and is touched by My humble feet will be, for My Father, the second door within the world for the coming of My powerful and unfathomable Mercy.

You, My dear ones, and to all who collaborate with this simple Plaza of Prayer for the Divine Mercy, I will be highly thankful to you through the Gift of My Sacred Heart, for collaborating from your hearts, with this savior project.

My friends, My followers, in life there will be the living action of this powerful source that will allow for the assistance of all souls of the world, of those most in need of inner healing.

Under the Grace and the Mercy of God, let us celebrate and be blessed.

Thank you for keeping My divine plans in your hearts!

Who blesses you on this day from the Heaven of My Father.

Christ Jesus, your Redeemer
