

Master, here I am

On March 5, 2023, Christ Jesus transmitted a Message for the 112nd Marathon of Divine Mercy from Nerja, Malaga, Spain, in front of the Mediterranean Sea, and said the following Words:

"This is why today I come walking upon the waters, so that you may have faith when you walk upon the oceans, without fear of failing or sinking, because I come to rescue you at this time. I come to call you by your names so that you may follow My Path toward the Light of God. (...)

Therefore, walk upon the waters, just as Peter did, being the most imperfect apostle of all. And, even so, he overcame himself when he saw the Master walk upon the waters. (...)

Lastly, I would like to thank the brothers and sisters who are here and came from different places of Europe to meet Me face to face, to reaffirm through them the union with Me, to say to Me:

Master, here I am
and here is my heart for You.

My heart, Lord, is Yours and I give it to You in trust so that you may convert it, Lord, into an instrument of peace,
into the profound emanation which I feel of Your Love, so that this Love, Master, may radiate to the world and to all those I have around me, so that Your Love, Lord, may liberate souls and we may all celebrate, at this hour, the communion with Your Love,
the Blazing Love of Your Merciful Heart.

Amen.

This is what I hear from honest hearts, from those who do not fear transformation and from those who take risks by saying 'yes' to Me at each new step. With this feeling from your hearts, I withdraw and retreat in prayer."
