

Prayer of the Soul that Fully Gives of Itself

On August 28, 2019, Our Lord transmitted the following prayer:

Lord,
although I may not feel nor perceive You,
I surrender to You, Jesus, because I know that all I experience and go through is part of a greater learning.

May I sustain myself in You, although sometimes you may seem distant from me, at least reveal Yourself in the Eucharist.

Let this sacred encounter be the reason for remaining forever upon Your path because, even though I may go through deserts, tests or challenges, I know that You, my Jesus, will be there.

When You suffer because of what You see or because of what I do, stay within me,
so that You may make me aware of what I need to change.
Thus, Jesus, I give myself completely, even though I am imperfect and I am mistaken.

Lord, I give myself to You, so that You can fulfill a part of Your Work, and, thus, souls can confirm that You are present, regardless of everything.

Keep me by Your side, Jesus, even though now You cannot show Yourself.

Make me similar to You
in love and service.
May I not fear losing control of all things, because I know that Yours is the Power and the Glory.

Lord, receive me into Your Heart, so that, based upon Your infinite Love,
I may build the New Humanity.

Amen.
