Apparition of the Glorified Christ Jesus during the 20th Marathon of Divine Mercy, in the Marian Center of the Child King, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón

Today I bring you My Sacred Heart as proof of My Love and of My Truth for all of you.

My Heart is gladdened on seeing good and persevering hearts, those that immediately respond to My Call and that, in spite of the consequences, always say 'yes' to Me.

Live in the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

I again offer Myself to the world as the great offering of love for all souls and for the whole of this wounded planet.

Seek the Source of My Sacred Heart and do not tire of quenching your thirst, for you will still thirst, My beloveds, until the last days of your lives.

Live in My Sacred Heart. Act through My merciful Heart and you will have nothing to fear, for I will be on your paths, lighting your destinies and accomplishing your projects, the Projects of God.

For this reason, live in My Sacred Heart.

Just as I requested in Rwanda, seek My Heart of Light, for the times are already difficult, souls are very fragile and few are prepared for facing what will come.

Come to My Heart of Light.

Take refuge in My loving Heart.

Rest your souls in My Spirit and be like children, who always seek the embrace of the Celestial Father.

Be little all the time, through your simple and humble works. Please the Heart of God, which continues to be outraged just as Mine is.

Gladden the Heart of the Celestial Father and be renewed every day through Communion.

I come to offer the only thing I have: the Source of My Love and My Truth, which is My Sacred Heart.

Do not waste time, My companions. Move away from tribulations.

Enter the path of Light that I am offering to you and do not cause My Heart to weep when your tests are difficult.

Rather, with the courage I have given you over the course of time, you have the inner strength to transcend all things.

I give you everything I have. But there are still many souls that do not receive anything.

Who will give the first testimony of My coming to the world? Who will risk living in My Name and profess My Sacred Word in humanity?

In this way, My beloveds, I invite you to the apostleship of sacrifice. Because only through sacrifice and surrender, the sweat of your bodies and the crying of your countenances, will humanity be able to be converted.

But do not experience sacrifice as suffering.

God had Me incarnate in this humanity as part of His absolute Love so that hearts not re-experience the martyrdom nor the suffering that completely suffocates all souls.

But today's humanity has not understood and many did not hear My Call in Rwanda.

I again make My pronouncement in this most holy place, where My Heart is pleased to see redeemed souls, resurrected by the love of a mother, of a good mother, surrendered to My Plan of Love.

I invite you, My companions, to decide to be My apostles. My Messages must not only pass by here; they must penetrate your hearts, strengthen your faith and conviction of living in Me.

My Words are no longer theories. On this plane I need living testimonies that represent what nobody wants to do.

Beloved children of God, there will no longer be a time nor moment in which humanity can again say it was not warned. This is My last Call.

My God has allowed Me to draw close to your hearts and souls, to find in you the consolation that I lack, because of the constant, inner and spiritual flagellation that I receive from ungrateful hearts.

But I know that many do not believe I am here. Happy are the hearts that believe without having seen Me, for they will be like the apostles of the past, many of whom did not know Me, but knew how to deeply live Me, living in My Word and in My Gospel.

I open the doors of My Heart of Light to you, as the only alternative for the end of times.

Do not waste time on superficial things. Time is running out fast and souls are becoming more and more lost, deceived by the things of this world and the offerings of a material life that cause deviations in the paths of My poor hearts. But My blessed Mother of Heaven prays together with Me at the Feet of the Creator.

I invite you, dear friends, to imitate this spiritual example. Kneel down at the Feet of the Creator and pray with all your heart and with all your soul.

I could not say, My companions, what will happen as from now, over the next months, for the world must deeply repent, recognize the damage it has caused to other hearts and deeply ask for My unfathomable Mercy.

Know, My companions, that I do not come to bring you fear, but rather a true awareness of what is done by all of humanity, the difficult consequences that drag many souls toward the abysses without light.

But I Am the resplendent Sun of the Universe, the living Molecule of the Heart of God that awakens many more molecules, in those hearts that offer themselves to My Heart, to renounce everything, transform completely and live My Divine Will absolutely.

I do not come to ask you for impossible things. I come to ask you for greater collaboration. I am still waiting, beloved children, for the missionaries of peace of the Immaculate Heart of Mary to arrive in the African lands to alleviate the suffering existing there and that few know about.

The hands of the clock continue to move forward and the need increases each day.

I need merciful souls, true merciful souls, who give the example in these times of the presence of My living Heart in this world, and who, through the Sacred Sacraments, which I invite you to experience again, renew your spirits, revive your souls and are freed from all blame. Therefore, be glad on this merciful afternoon.

May all souls hear the fullness of My Voice and may all angels lift up to Heaven the true promise of this civilization, which will be to comply with the redemption no matter the cost, with whomever it may be, for My Heart is counting on you all. But it is very few who respond to the true need that I put before you.

Today I stretch out My Hands upon you and pour out the Light of the Heart, so that peace may be achieved.

Divine Light of Jesus,

*transform my atoms, molecules, cells, and all of my being,
for the Glory of God.*

Today I receive the offering of this Communion, which I also radiate with all My merciful Love to communities and monasteries, in this so definite hour, of transition and of changes, in which all the souls of the world must respond to the Call of the Creator through the Divine Messengers.

We will lift up to Heaven, My beloveds, this sacred offering, so that it may convert into My Body and My Blood, Life in your lives, healing for your spirits, redemption for your molecules.

At this moment, in the silence of the heart and of the soul, lift a spiritual petition to My merciful Heart.

I am listening.

In the four corners of the Earth, I consecrate all the elements that are the living manifestation of the union of souls with the eternal Creator Father. In this way, companions, let us consecrate in union with God and His principle of Love and of Unity.

My Rays are radiated to you on this afternoon; may this consecrated Body and this precious Blood serve as reparation, mainly for those who do not listen to Me.

And just as it occurred on the Cross, today I spill My Blood and My Water upon you, so that you never forget the principle of constant renewal, which is the Source of Love.
