APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS DURING THE SACRED WEEK, DAY 7, IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDU, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

Emmanuel listens to you with His deep feeling of Love and Truth.

The scale of Justice is being balanced for some parts of the world where peace and especially My Mercy are lacking.

As a Solar Angel, I bring you what exists in the Kingdom of Heaven, that which is most pure, among all that is pure in this Kingdom.

And to close this seventh day, let us pray, as you have been doing in these days.

The whole Order at the feet of My altar. Those who cannot kneel before My Throne may stand. Reverence is born from the spirit and not from matter. The spirit is filled by the Light of God and thus you are vivified in His Love.

Our Lord asks the Order to say the prayer that the angel taught us in Fatima, the prayer of reparation, when He so indicates.

In the meantime, companions, see Emmanuel present here, in His deepest emanation, through His beloved Son who manifests His Power, His Source and His Love for this Earth compromised with the insignia of evil.

Reparation is what many souls need to achieve redemption. Without reparation there will be no cure and the cure is born from Love, and it is Love that repairs all deep things in the souls.

The end is drawing near. The Omega is being drawn in the Sideral Universe. That is the visible sign of a great change that will lead humanity to a change in consciousness, permanent and continuous, without stopping, beyond the hours and time.

It is the great inner change in the open hearts, which live in the Lord, which dwell in His Spirit and which transcend the times with nothing hurting them and taking them away from God. For it is the deep communion that will lead you to Peace.

Let us pray, companions, the hour is setting it. Those who do not know prayer may unite through the heart, to the great path that I will open on this seventh day.

Oh! Beloved Lord,
Oh! Beloved Christ,
accept our reparation through our love,
our surrender and our prayer,
so that Your flagellated Heart, Lord,

be relieved by our devotion to You.

Amen.

(repeat seven times)

Raise your prayers to God and intercede lovingly for this sleeping humanity, which needs to awaken the spirit of redemption.

Freed from mistakes and sins, during these last seven days, be worthy in the Lord to receive again His Grace.

And thus prepared and willing to face the end of times, you will be able to help all those brothers and sisters who will need your hands and prayers. This will be a visible sign to all and that will show that the end has come.

Emmanuel is the source of all just causes for this Universe. From His Heart the Truth is born and that Truth is provided to all the heavens of this Universe, until it reaches here, your plane in this material life and thus many souls recognize His Will.

But when most of this humanity is disconnected from that Truth of Emmanuel, other paths are taken. They are not the paths of the Lord, souls are distanced from the purpose and lose the strength of their inner light.

For this reason, My companions, My God sent Me into the world; and God manifested Himself before you in Body, Soul and Heart. He was scourged, martyred and humiliated, but this was to save this whole race.

Many of those who are not here today, and who will be witnesses that I have been here, when they know My message, will be grateful and repent for having wasted their time and for having turned their backs on the Universe that welcomes them and calls them to redemption.

But the Father needs you strong and purified because the signs will come one after the other and, by that time, there will be no more time to wait.

From the source of that Justice the Omega is born, and that is the predestined symbol for the world, the one that will close a stage at the end of the purification to start another cycle, a new Earth liberated from all evil.

But for that to be possible, companions, the effort will be great. The demand will also be great. Many will give everything to reach that goal, even their own lives, as many did in the past to maintain the balance of humanity.

But you will not have to think about these things. Your Lord is the true existence, He must be the aspiration of your trust so that the bases are truly built and no pillar will be crooked, so that the Temple of Light, in righteousness and harmony, may be raised before the Lord, your God.

The floor of your feet must be removed. The Earth will tremble because it will cry out at the moment of its great birth. And there the beings of Light will gather around the Omega to begin the final ceremony. And you will see protective lights, shining in some points of the Earth, that will fill the souls of an unknown spirit, of an unknown force that will strengthen them and bring them to peace, before all things. And that will serve as a support for many hearts that are not destined to make use of that Greater Light.

Now remember, companions, the Source of Holy Justice. Today, your Lord, Christ Jesus, reveals to all the essence of the final time.

Do not think of your families and children, for if you have truly given your lives to My Heart, what should you fear, are you no longer a part of My unfathomable Mercy?

In the difficult moments you must remember Me, and there more than ever, my companions, the virtues and gifts I have given you in these days, which are invisible to your eyes, must be made available for service to the planet. It will not be necessary to shout for the things you will see, nor to be divided through your foundations.

Remember to seek the essence of humility that I taught you, that is the true home that is invincible and strong, that will not be destroyed by evil. Build in your foundations the essence of humility, so that the temple will be erected correctly and no wind greater than your strength can tear you down.

Thus, I will be able to enter your temples as I have done many times before to help the souls towards liberation.

Sing to Emmanuel, your Eternal Father. Through My Heart, He hears the offerings of the simple ones, when the inner emanation is truly born from the heart of each being.

Song: Emmanuel Padre-Madre Creador (Emmanuel Creator Father-Mother).

When you sing, not only do the doors of the Universe open. The souls are filled with an unknown spirit, whom they love very much from the beginning of their birth. That spirit is that of Love, the invincible strength for times of chaos.

On this seventh day, companions, My last blessing will be together with the apostles, instituting in this small space My Sacred Cenacle, where the image of the Sacred Heart must be erected. And thus many will remember that I was here among you, not only walking among the orange trees, visiting your souls, but consoling your sufferings and giving life to what was dead.

If the Sacred Heart were present here as an image and as light, here you would find a place of relief next to the house of My Mother and the chapel of Saint Michael.

The Universe gives you three spiritual and profound spaces, so that in this material life you may find the help you seek so much. The healing will always be within you and thus the sick body will be healed.

Make the right path now. Heal the deep things. Free yourselves from your beings and thus you will find peace in this spring which I leave open for all today.

Know that in this humble, small and simple place where this altar is located today will be My Presence, the beating of My Heart, not only for this country that owes so much to the Lord, but for this entire region of America.

But if your spirits connect with My Presence here, regardless of where they are, My friends, I will come to your homes creating a bridge of light, from here to your homes. I will pour My graces upon you, as long as you need them.

The times of trial will come, so I am giving you a little piece of Heaven that is deposited in this place through My Most Sacred Heart. This will be the precinct of the King, the One who does not rule only in the simple hearts. That is the true King.

Through My Words and instructions, I have consecrated all the elements. And just as you did during these days of prayer of Mercy, I invite all of the faithful and congregated to raise their rosaries to carry this Light of Mine, the Light of God, wherever you go.

Remember that everything is distributed with love and charity, without manipulation nor power because then my Light will not act. The sincerity of your heart will mark the way to bring My Light to the world.

Thank God for this final encounter and like the sun that shines in this galaxy, the one that illuminated you many centuries and eras ago, today, I pour out that Sun that is the presence of My Heart, the perfect code for the salvation of souls, the profound healing of wounded souls, the liberation of lost spirits and the Mercy for all humanity.

Under the power that God granted Me, on the basis of faith and trust in your lives, I bless you and absolve you from all sin so that you may sin no more, be transformed and become in perfect communion with My Heart.

Remember that I will always forgive you, but the time of justice is coming and the fountain of My Mercy is being gathered. Drink from that Greater Fountain. Submerge into that Ocean of Grace for the door is closing.

Under the angels of the Lord, I bless you in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Now, brothers, place your rosaries on the palms of your hands.

Oh! Blood of Christ,
poured out over the world,
purify our soul,
relieve our heart.
Have mercy on us, Lord.

(repeat three times)
