APPARITION OF CHRIST JESUS DURING THE 25th MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY, IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDÚ, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

The signs of time have already been written and now they are revealed for the times that will come.

The books open in your presence and the hidden seals of heaven are revealed so that the events may occur on the face of the planet.

But faith will be the forbearance to reach paradise, and your persistence will be found in following the path blindly, the one indicated by the Shepherd, who comes at the end of times to manifest His glory in the new redeemed spirits.

Yesterday I gave you a part of this secret. It is not important, companions, that your hearts understand the Scriptures of the Universe.

It is important, companions, that your spirits adhere to the Laws that I manifest to you so as to be able to live in the Heart of God.

Because if you live the Commandments, the basic Laws proclaimed to Moses, you will be able to live the Laws to come, which will permeate the planet, within its new cosmic time, when the real time of the Universe vibrates in your cells to find the Kingdom of God, that many are losing due to the severity of these times, which commits souls to follow other paths that are not of the Will of My Lord.

I come to remind you of the Commandments and the Laws so that you may correct your lives in time. Thus, My Heart will be permeated in you. We will be one in this new Project and I will be able to walk by your side every day of your life so that you will not feel alone in the darkness of this humanity.

But know that I Am this Great Star, which can shine brightly in your hearts. The most important thing for this new time that is coming, after the 8th of August, is that you experience a perfect communion with Me and that you remember to unify this communion with your peers, loving them more each day, forgiving them, accepting them, and experiencing the cross that they carry, which is heavier than yours.

For this reason, companions, I come to recover in your lives something that has not yet been taught by humanity, which is the spirit of fraternity that is often forgotten due to the superficiality of life, the commitments acquired through this material life.

This fraternity of which I speak to you today is about the unification of your hearts with the Purpose of God. This is why I come to be among you during this special time of prayer and of peace, so that you may leave this holy house strengthened and able to correct your paths.

Because I tell you truly, companions, that your hearts know what is not well, what is not good for My Merciful Heart when you perform actions so normal and common for these times.

But I come, companions, to give you this possibility, opening the fourteenth door of My Heart so that the last ones may enter My Redemptive Project and that it may be fully formed not only by the servers and collaborators of My Mercy, but by the whole world, that truly does not aspire to be with me, because the things I promise are for the next period of humanity.

But from your lives I come to recover the treasures that you once knew in your hearts, those you know as talents, that will be of critical importance and necessity for My Project to be fulfilled in this humanity. If I cannot count on your talents, beyond your abilities, how will the Work of God be fulfilled in this unredeemed humanity?

2000 years ago I incarnated among you in a Spirit of Life, of Mercy and of Redemption so that, through the instruction of My parables and the wonders and miracles of Love, you would be able to evolve towards the Spirit of God and could be a civilization contemplated by the One Source as a real and efficient project that has not yet ended.

Omega will still come. You are fulfilling that promise. You are going through a transition that is just in the beginning steps of this humanity. You will face unknown things, you will see unknown things, you will feel unknown things. But if you are united with My Redemptive Fire and allow yourselves to be burned by My Divine Fire so that your particles may be transfigured, I will be able to show you the true path and you will not miss this last boat that goes by to call for the last ones, those that will form the legion of the 144,000.

Today, before you, through My Heart I manifest the Star of the Light so that it may be the symbol of your guidance and you may never lose the aspiration to find My subtle worlds, where the Kingdom of God remains together with His angels and archangels and the humanities that sanctified themselves in the name of the Lord.

To your origins, toward this infinite and inner paradise, you should take an excellent experience of life, that gives the best fruits, through your experience of faith and of unity.

I need you to be unified not only in prayer but also in daily life; may you unify with your families so that they leave the path of perdition offered by the modernities of these end times, thus forgetting My Gospel, which is the first Law of your life and that you must learn before you die; otherwise, where will the treasure be that I sowed in you so long ago?

I promised My disciples, and the prophets and patriarchs before Me, through My Divine Spirit, the Spirit of God, that I would return in this time, after My Death and Resurrection, to bring you a renewing word, a true and ever more profound celestial knowledge for your lives.

I know, dear companions, that at this moment I tell you many things and that your minds still cannot understand absolutely anything. It is in your hearts where My Sap of Life is, it is in your hearts where God, the Almighty, can dwell, whom I bring at this time so that you may be able to recognize Him through My Glorified Heart.

I heard your intentions, I received your prayers, and today I open My Arms; I stretch out My Hands to you, blessing you with My golden Mantle of Light, which represents the protection of My Glory over you, which will make you invisible in the face of the deceits of My adversary.

Do not cease praying, just as My Mother has requested. The times will change rapidly, as is happening today. It is something you must perceive soon and you should not accept the signs of nature as something normal. The world faces its first transition, but does not know how it will be.

The soul that prays from the heart, that devoutly unites with My Merciful Spirit, will know where to be and what to do at the exact moment, because I will guide it so that it may enter My Heart through the portal that I open to you today, the portal of My Divinity and of My Spirit, immaculate principle of God for the creatures of the Earth.

And today you will be faced with the teachings that I once gave you, which are the Sacraments; a renewal of your spirits and consequently of your souls, of your material life.

In all this mystery of the Sacrament of My Love you can find the principle of the renewal of your faith and of your hope, so that you are able to go bravely through the end of times and always recognize the Celestial Father in all things, in all the teachings of your lives and at all times.

I do not come to ask you to do difficult things. I come to teach you so that you can do simple things, because in them is God with His Spirit of humility, permeating all things, in all moments of life.

If you trust, you will be doing the correct thing. If you follow My Footsteps, you will not lose the path because you will always see My Feet walking before you towards the Purpose.

We will bless the sacred elements just as I taught the Apostles in Jerusalem. Remember this moment, the moment in which I was baptized and asked My own to baptize in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

Thus, I became Life in you through the Communion. I washed your past by washing your feet with My Water of Life. And through My Apostles, I anointed you to free you from the spirit of impurity.

What do you think about while I am present?

You must be united with Me to experience this moment as something real so that, through this meeting, your hearts may be wholly in Me. Thus, all will be fulfilled on Earth as in Heaven.

Before the angels of Heaven, we will bless. Benefit from this moment, in order to receive your inner part.

The Sacraments are an opportunity of renewal for souls and a principle of redemption for all beings, for those who experience it in the sincerity and in the love of the heart, where I am always present in everyone.

I thank you!

Go in peace for having prayed with Me, for helping the planet in the aspiration of the new humanity.

I bless you until a new meeting, in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

May the bells toll for My Ascension.
