Holy Father of Peace,
Your Name, that is blessed and pure, will save me.
In Your Kingdom of Peace, I will adore Your Ark,
in Your sublime Light, I will understand Your sacred Mysteries.
Emmanuel, I will praise you for all eternity.
Amen.

Who lives in Me, lives in the angels, who decree powerful affirmations for the immaterial life constantly.

Elevated be the altars upon your beings so that you may participate in the Resurrection of the Lord.

May the Sacred Words be kept within your hearts and may your inner worlds shine through My Light so that the currents of evil may be closed to the hearts of the Earth.

You will revive these Holy Words with Me, but you will not be able to take them. If you did so, you would be outside of the Law, because what I come to rebuild on this seventh day of Glory and Resurrection is to fulfill the elevation of your spirits and consciousnesses of the whole planet so that you live the Plan and it be fulfilled in all the creatures.

This decree is healing for your hearts. It is an answer to your inner call and to your offer throughout these days. Do it in reverence and in union with My Heart so that My Purpose is not erased from your cells and so that you never forget, companions, that if I have placed you in this life and in this group consciousness, it is because you have a purpose, of which a part you will never understand.

Let us repeat in adoration and while kneeling, for those who are able, without submitting the bodies to the effort; because it is the hearts that vibrate in your lives and not the movements. So you will glorify My Father on this day of Glory before the twelve choirs that I have brought to My Meeting for you and the world.

This is a decree that was transmitted by the seraphim angels of the ultra-terrestrial Universe, before the arrival of Christ.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

At the request of Christ, we are going to repeat, word by word, first the decree and then we will repeat the meaning.

Holy Father of Peace,

Your Name, that is blessed and pure, will save me.

In Your Kingdom of Peace, I will adore Your Ark,

in Your sublime Light, I will understand Your Sacred Mysteries.

Emmanuel, I will praise you for all eternity.

Amen.

(three times)

Seven bell chimes.

Companions, you may be seated.

Now, companions, never lose what I have left you through this Sacred Decree, that unites you with Heaven and Earth, with the angels and archangels, who adore the redemption of the Son of God for the whole world and for all humanity.

The twelve heavenly choirs have important missions for the world and for all souls on Earth.

They are the same ones that helped Me to concretize the redemption project in the past and throughout the ages and of all the icons that I have revealed to the world, throughout the centuries.

The most immaculate icon, since the beginning of Earth, is the Ark of the Holy Covenant. It is the synthesis that keeps all the Mysteries of God revealed in His inner scrolls, where the Creator Father and His helper angels have written the History of humanity, the same that is kept like a mirror in those sacred places of the world, where they have not yet come to light in their majority, only some, and for some.

May the sacred knowledge of the patriarchs, of the prophets and of the Master Himself, with the intervention of all angels and of the twelve choirs, be sacred in your lives, may they ennoble your hearts and not your minds; because in truth I tell you, companions, that things on Earth will happen, but My Words will remain in those who have been consequent with Me and with the treasures of Heaven, that were fruitified by the Sacred Family from the beginning of their incarnations on Earth, as consciousnesses of light and service to the Plan of the Most High.

Gladden your hearts, because they have to be cleaned of any stain for the codes of the Divinity to enter into your consciousnesses and consequently, into the whole world.

This is the task of all who pray to My Heart and to the Sacred Hearts of Saint Joseph and Mary. This is the task of the columns that follow the groups of prayer in their different regions of the world.

Your spirits, companions, must be these Sacred Disks that keep the codes and information of the Highest, of the Supreme Divinity and of the Infinite.

It will be this Sacred Knowledge, that in reverence and love will be able to reach those who need it and will be able to awaken all those who sleep in the dream of illusion and deceit.

This Decree that you have repeated before My Holy Name is part of the Sacred Covenant.

I have made it known to you as a vow of trust and as an answer to your dedication.

Record these vibrations and words within your hearts, beyond your memories, because I tell you companions, that your spirits will be the ones that will rise to the Kingdom of My Father and not your bodies, and thus you will be able to enter into the abodes that I have prepared, after My Ascension, eternal abodes in the Universe, that will always radiate peace.

I ask you, companions, solemnly and joyously: Do you wish to repeat the Decree before My Father?

Yes!

If your decisions and actions were like this "yes," the world would be saved.

Glorify your Guardian angels for so much mercy that they give you.

And now, let us pray in My Glory, for Adonai.

So that this decree may be realized by all, companions, it must be sung as a melody, so that you may learn it correctly in the next meeting. And I will wait for those sacred worlds of the Ark of the Holy Covenant to be alive for the next Holy Week.

Companions, do you wish that I return here, for one more week, next year?

Yes!

Friar Elias del Sagrado Corazón:

The Master is smiling.

I will not only come for you, but also for those who need Me because I know that it is important for the souls and the strengthening of faith in the hearts.

But you will commit yourselves with Me, companions, that next year we will be two thousand here, as it was on the Mount of Beatitudes.

You will have one year to work on this invitation that should not be forced, but worked through prayer and your persistence in My Sacred Heart.

So that I will be able to say, next year, that My task will be largely fulfilled with you and that you will put your talents to use for the end of times; the talents of your prayer, of your charity, of your service, of your trust in God and in the brotherhood with all your fellow beings, without differences or judgments.

That is why I hope, companions, that for the next year, the base of the Auditorium of Mercy will be laid on the ground of Aurora.

I will come here again to bless you in Glory and to carry you all to My Heart.

Aurora offers you this Grace of being present here for one more year.

When some time has gone by, this auditorium will be small for My Work. But Aurora will open its doors to receive you all as this house has done it in honor of My Heart.

I would like the coordinators of the groups of prayer to come here, to take a sign to their brothers and sisters, that I will now give you.

That on this day of Glory, all the sacred elements be blessed and sanctified by the angels of Heaven and the twelve choirs.

The water that blesses you and quenches your thirst.

The oil that cures and heals you.

The Blood that divinizes you.

The living Body that makes itself body in you, the Body of Light and Truth.

This is the Blood that is kept as Light in the Sacred Ark.

Blessed are those who drink of My Glory.

Drink and pray with Me, so that the Father may always comfort you in the unity of His Spirit with His Son and with the Holy Spirit.

Drink and feel My Peace, My invincible Strength that gathers you as a flock around the Cenacle of your Lord. Feel the trust of what you receive and multiply these codes wherever you go, in union with My Spirit and the maximum Will that is fulfilled in those who correspond to God and to His Legacy.

Embrace this flame of My Blood, that ignites you, and feel in your paths the realization of My Will, for those who most need to come back to rekindle their paths in My ways.

Drink and remove within you whatever bothers you.

Glorify yourselves every day in prayer with your brothers and sisters.

You can be sparks of My Light each time you meet me in adoration and in prayer.

You can be currents of My Mercy and so I purify you from all evil.

You can walk beside Me in trust, persevering in all challenges that the Lord presents to you in order to reshape your lives to the purpose of love and truth.

Feel in this Mystery, which is infinite, the manifestation of My Love for each one of my followers and of My disciples.

Precious Blood is poured into the loyal hearts who drink in union with all souls who need peace.

In this work that I perform is found the purpose for everyone, which you will discover and understand when I am no longer here, until My return to the world.

May your groups be this light that the world needs for these times and may all difficulties dissipate so that the Love of My Heart among you will always be reborn until I come back to search for you at the indicated time. There are many who depend on you to take steps towards My Heart.

Blessed be Father, for all that You give to the souls, for all the medicine you give to those who listen to you, for all the trust You emanate to those who feel You, for all You cultivate in those who search for You.

Sacred ceremony of love, I infuse for all, so that My designs may be fulfilled in those who await My coming.

Drink with trust and renew your vows within My Heart because He will never abandon you. My light is stronger than all the darkness and My Heart rejoices in those who understand My projects and I give peace to those who most need it.

With My Blood I can cleanse an entire being and unite them with Me so that My Will is fulfilled in those who follow Me.

Drink of the fruit that I give you.

And now I will leave you anointed for your strength, in the name of the Holy Trinity and of all the custodian angels that accompany this ceremony, for the souls that join Me.

I never forget those who ask Me to.

Our Father... (in Aramaic)

I bless you and keep you in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

And now, in the elevation that I live with the angels from heaven, your Father will listen to "Peacemakers" and may this song be performed as one voice for humanity.

I await and expect you for the next Sacred Week of 2017.
