APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST DURING THE SACRED WEEK, DAY 8, AT THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

Today I am with the Father. And if the Father is with Me, the Father is with you. And if the Father is with you, He is present with His Power in humanity.

Blessed be You, Lord, because you have created water to purify Your creatures and thus elevate the consciousnesses.

Today I wash your hands so that you can receive My new Plan, you will be doing this on behalf of all.

Blessed be you, Lord, Present in the incense. All Your Light is revealed to liberate souls and all spaces from evil, converted by Your Mercy.

Today will talk, companions, about the Plan thought by My Heart. After this purification and sanctification, your hearts are ready to receive My designs. Although your lives are imperfect, the Plan of your Redeemer must be fulfilled.

And now this request is not only in you, but in all your brothers and sisters in the world, who in this last Sacred Week opened the door for Me so that I could enter and reign.

This, companions, is the reason why Adonai is here today, through the living Heart of His Son and through His Priestly Consciousness; just as are present the patriarchs, the great guardians of the legacy and the custodians of the sacred treasures of Heaven.

Today I come to unite the time of Moses, the time of your Master and this time, the present, to carry out the last part of My Work, through all the impulses that come from the Universe at this moment.

Everything is part of a greater design. Even the small details are part of My Plan, so that it is carried out in souls.

Light your candles harmoniously, so that this Plan that will be revealed may be illuminated in the world, through My Words and those of our Holy Father Adonai.

Listen now to My burning desire, which must be your desire, your aspiration, so that you can always be in God and within His Work, as were the patriarchs and the ancient peoples of the desert; as the hermits and all the consecrated lived, by closing the doors to the world to enter the temple of their monasteries and to worship God there.

A part of humanity must always be the powerful weapon of consecration; this allows the Universes to descend to Earth and no soul to fail to be permeated by the Will of God or not know it, thus they will have the possibility of fulfilling it in their material life and in their spiritual path.

With this preamble, I come to speak to you about My designs for these times, because these designs are the last ones, which will finalize My redemptive Work, until the moment when I return to the world, to call the flocks to be close to their Lord and within the stable of His Heart.

Great are the projects I have for this world in crisis. That is why today I reveal My Priestly Face, because it is the one that will sustain these projects and all those who consecrate themselves to them, according to the level of their school and their awakening.

On this last day of Holy Week, I come to close a cycle, with you and humanity; with all those who listen to Me, because I know that they know, within themselves, that there is a commitment to fulfill and live.

Remember your freedom, for the Lord does not tie up His sheep. The Lord calls them by their name, so that they drink from the Fountain of His Graces, from the inexhaustible spring of Love. Drinking from this Fountain, the flocks are assigned by their Lord, and sent to fulfill the purpose of their Shepherd in the world. With this I mean that each one has to fulfill a part in this sacred mission of love for humanity.

My Heart will reach everyone, first through your good examples; second, through your life of charity; third, through your sincere prayer. These three bases build the servers of the Plan and all those who in these times will be self-summoned to follow Me; that now it will not only be two or three, or a thousand, but millions, who listen to My Word and in whom My Word resounds within, in all languages ??of the world.

The challenges will seem impossible. The triumphs will seem unattainable. The goals will seem difficult. But the one who is in Me and in all their brothers and sisters, in perfect unity and brotherhood, will achieve everything.

Do not be afraid to go out into the world to serve Me. I have shown you that this is possible through the Missionaries of Peace. It is time for you to light the flame of your personal and group mission. All these Centers of Love, like the one where you are today, must be sustained, supported and helped, in order to receive all of humanity.

Your mission has changed and you must perceive it, because if you perceive it, companions, you will be able to accompany your Master on this planetary mission, which will no longer have borders or limitations, in order to reach those who suffer and those who wait for the sacred Hope.

That is why firm steps must be taken, so that you walk on the path of the new Plan and help sustain this planet in the face of the chaos that reigns in the world and that causes many souls to be lost in despair, pain and suffering.

I want your hearts to be glorified like Mine, because, through this glory, souls will avail themselves of healing and relief, something they hope so much for and seek so much.

Thus, I invite you to position yourself in the ranks of the Plan, so that the Ray of My Grace descends in many more nations of the world.

You already know how to be mirrors of love, My Mother has taught this to you. You already know how to serve, My Father Saint Joseph has shown this to you. You already know how to forgive, My Heart has revealed this to you, through a whole year of messages. All gifts were delivered. The tools of Heaven were received, so that the workers of the Plan work in this co-redemptive Work, which each of your hearts are called to live, in these times of chaos and battle.

Do not oppose your will to the wills of the world. Stay away from your will, so that the Will of God descends and manifests itself in your desires and principles, in this crucial hour on the planet.

After thirty years of instructions, after almost ten years of blessings, it is time to work for humanity and for all its Lower Kingdoms, wherever it may be, following the steps of the Light of your Redeemer.

Open the doors of your consciousnesses and no longer want anything for yourself, only good and love for others, thus generating the great current of Fraternity. In this way you will be My apostles and not just My servants. You will be the columns of My Work in the world, in the East or in the West, in the North of the planet or in the South. It does not matter where it may be. It only matters that you are called to live it, with great rejoicing, joy and love.

Finally, be citizens of this Universe and live in unity with a Great Celestial Brotherhood, which helps this current race not to activate bombs, or self-destruction, as it was in the forties. My Father took refuge in His Source when the Hiroshima bomb was activated. Great pain was felt throughout this local Universe. The great wise guardians of the stars prostrated themselves to beg for mercy and forgiveness. I invite you to imitate this example before everything happens.

If My Work reaches Asia before its time, Oceania and Russia, many will not be lost and millions of souls will be diverted from war and pain.

As long as humanity accepts weapons, very little will be the Mercy of God. While many do not pray, very scarce will be the Grace of God. Who will sustain, companions, the Bridge of Light that extends into the abysses, formed by the union of all souls, of all the hearts of the world that say yes to the Universe?

My Heart is the great bomb of Love for the world. It is the radiant Sun of Mercy, which is flagellated by the injustices of humanity. But My Grace is greater than all the errors in the world.

I come to grant, in this last instance of the planet, a merciful atonement. I deeply wish in My prayers that all souls of the world avail themselves of this, so that My Consciousness and My Heart may triumph in humanity.

Today My Mantle of Light is embroidered by all the flags of the nations of the world. My next mission is Asia and I call the flocks to follow Me to realize the great triumph of the Mercy of God.

I am the Priest of Peace and I wish the best for souls. Blessed are those who listen from the heart and fulfill the promises of their Redeemer.

So be it.

Let us then raise to the Father the aspirations, the intentions of His Beloved Son, so that they descend in Grace and Redemption upon humanity.¹

Thus, through these six prayers, three Our Fathers and three glories, you can become worthy to live the Plan of God and to concretize it on this planet and in this humanity.

Whenever you feel the fragility of living your own mission or the group mission together with your brothers and sisters, remember to pray three Our Fathers and three Glories, as I have taught you. You can also teach it to your brothers and sisters, who will need to awaken to the Plan of God, at the end of these times.

And now I will pray to Adonai for you and for the world. Those who volunteer may kneel.

This will be the closing of My task this week, so that in the next Sacred Week of 2018 we will already be three thousand. Begin working now, without leaving behind all the impulses that I have brought into the world, to generate your salvation and redemption.

Most High Father of the Universe, Source of Love and Mercy, Supreme Lord of the Heights, One Consciousness of the Greater Universes, Sacred Source of renewal, Divine Spirit that gestates Creation,

High Archangels and Angels, unconditional servants of God,

Holy Spirit that pervades everything created and reveals Your gifts to creatures, Hierarchies and hosts of Light, listen to the Voice of your beloved Lord!

Universes, stars and suns, radiate your codes to all living beings.

Sacred Fire of Love, which renews all, the Only truth that exist in all that is consciousness and matter,

Father, listen to the Voice of Your Son, who offers the sacrifice of His Heart for all who follow Him faithfully and in unity.

Today I proclaim My appeal; today I raise My supplication. I prostrate, Adonai, before You, as a slave and servant of Your Project. Today I offer My Wounds, My Consciousness and My Divinity, so that You, Father, may express Yourself in Your children, with the Wisdom of Your Heart and the Love of Your Spirit.

May each living being receive the Grace of communing with You. May each one who suffers ease their pain. May each nation hear Your call and fulfill it. Because Your Celestial Kingdom is approaching, as it was more than two thousand years ago.

Open the doors, Adonai, of Your Sacred Kingdom, for many more to enter and the hells to close. And for those who are in purgatory to find the path of Your Light.

Also remember, Father, all those who are still incarnated on this small planet. Pour out Your Mercy upon the Lower Kingdoms, which suffer the consequences of the world and of indifference.

May Your molecules of Love and Your codes of life bless this humanity, which has lost its way, to find Your Kingdom.

That is why Adonai, I am Your bridge so that You descend in Glory, Light and Love.

Do not look at the errors of the unjust, the tribulation of the governors, the terror of nations and of wars.

Beloved Father, may Your Peace descend today and may all, as a single consciousness, feel embraced by Your Light and by Your Divine Love, forever. Amen.

I thank you for joining me. The celestial victory is approaching.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

1 - Three Our Fathers - in Spanish, Portuguese and Aramaic - and three Glories were prayed.
