Apparition of Christ Jesus during the 50th Marathon of Divine Mercy, on September 6, 2017, in the Marian Center of Figueira, Minas Gerais, Brazil, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón

Our Father... (x2)

Pai Nosso... (x1)

Never stop looking at the Inner Sun of My Heart, for in this way, you will always be protected from everything.

My Silence today speaks of an acute planetary reality.

For this reason, yesterday I had to emanate the greatest Fount of My Love to you, in order to be able to speak to you today about what I am going to say.

I am holding the Book of the Wisdom of God in My Hands and I come accompanied by the twenty-four Ancients. Gathered together in a single Council, we deliberate on the next steps for this humanity.

Today is not an ordinary day, but rather a day of great definitions, for which I invite you to continue praying, although apparently it may seem a mystery.

In this Book of the Wisdom of God, the destiny of the current humanity is to be found, a destiny unknown to everybody, which still has not been revealed, not even in dreams.

But today I bring you this treasure of God because it is the Father Himself who, with His Holy Hand, writes down the events of this current humanity that has already entered fully into the planetary transition.

I ask you to open your hearts for what I am bringing to you today as a message.

I ask you to not be afraid, but rather have a broad awareness, in order to inwardly perceive the Sacred Knowledge of God that is written in this Sacred Book of His Universal and infinite Kingdom; the Kingdom that the angels and archangels care for in perpetual praise and honor to the Almighty, because He writes and builds the destiny of humanity every day.

What many would wish to see is to be found In this Book, but also what many do not want to see, because in the Book of the Wisdom of God the Divine Wisdom is reflected, the one which has begun to invisibly descend all the planes until reaching this physical plane and being concretized.

That is why I ask you to concentrate your gazes on the inner Sun of My Heart, because there exists the equilibrium, harmony, and unity that will make you strong for these difficult times.

That is why in these days, companions, I invited you to define yourselves as My apostles of the end of times, so that you may be able to serve Me in each corner of this world where the planetary reality is becoming acute and souls fall into their own abysses, without finding even a speck of light.

I invite you to be aware so as to acquire a maturity sufficiently uplifted to help you face these times and all the learning experiences that will come to enrich your spirits with new experiences of Love and of Redemption.

It is in this way that I come to request, with the Book of the Wisdom of God in Hand, something that you have never experienced: an absolute and full surrender so that My Plan may be able to materialize even further on the surface.

The twenty-four Ancients of the Universe, the great carriers of the Sacred Knowledge of God, the Great Mentors among mentors, are those who mirror Divine Justice to the Universe in this time.

They are not promoters of universal punishment, as My adversary is. They are just consciousnesses that throughout time have learned and lived, in all Heavens, the knowledge of this human experience within this sacred planet.

In their hands they hold the Project of God, especially in their Solar Hearts.

They know what the world needs to experience and what the aspiration of the Almighty is, but they cannot interfere or alter the free will of this humanity, which is what truly condemns it, time after time.

But if your eyes are upon the Inner Sun of My Heart, you will learn to set aside superficiality and everything that blinds the human being in this time, disconnecting them from God completely.

Today, they came with Me, the Sacred Ancients of the Universe, to be able to see and be present for what will happen in the world overnight.

It is important that you not change My Words, because their meaning, the energy, and the Principle of what I want to say change, for your inner worlds, not for your minds.

Thus, place your feelings in your heart and in this moment, re-experience what I brought you yesterday; it is what I always wish to give My companions, so that the universal bitterness may finally be dissolved, that which has condemned all the creatures in this Universe to the errors of yesteryear.

We come as a Universal Council to make you aware of the new decisions that have already been taken and of which you are a part, just as is each being of this surface.

Today I ask you to disseminate to the world the importance of living in the Gift of the Fear of God, so that souls may have time to repent and to do true penitence, before everything happens, because I know that many believe that nothing will happen.

There would be no sense in My being here after fifty meetings, preparing you for that great moment, in which your missionary souls will be active, in operation, and at the service of the planetary need.

Prepare to stop doing all that you do daily. Do not feel discomfort when the time comes to be removed from what is normal in these times.

I have already told you, companions, that you are My Hands and My Feet so that I may work on this planet and avoid millions of souls being unexpectedly lost, in an unheard-of way, that nobody knows about up to now.

That is why it is important that your spiritual values be present and latent. You will need all those values to be able to go through the end of the times with bravery and courage, and thus not be distracted with everything that happens daily in the world.

In you I want to build universal consciousnesses, beings that are able to mirror the Wisdom of God in these times, without losing a moment of their lives to learn all that is necessary, everything that God needs you to learn for the great planetary moment that humanity will experience.

Today I expose My Most Holy Body to the whole planet because it will be the Portal through which you will be able to enter, to be safe under Divine Protection and under the protection of My Eucharistic Heart.

Happy will be those who do so, and if many more did so, there would be a greater balance on this planet, and it will not be necessary, in spite of the great debt of this race, from its human line to the Kingdoms of Nature, that the Oceans be so stirred up, nor the Earth move so much.

I can say to you with all of My Heart that nobody is prepared for the end of the times, but it will be necessary to experience them.

You incarnated in this era, in these end times, to participate in this transition, of which many more should be aware, to get out of the global drowsiness.

The more good works that are done in the world, the smaller the catastrophe in humanity will be.

The fewer animals sacrificed by humankind itself on the surface, the less necessary it will be that blood continue to be spilled in this world, innocent blood.

The fewer minerals and forests are exploited, the fewer abortions there will be in the world, and the mothers will not have the pain of that cruelty remain with them up to their next lives.

The less infringement on the oceans, contamination of the seas, and sacrifices of the whales, the smaller will be the movement of the axis of the Earth and the melting of the poles, never seen before by God, nor by the whole of this Universe. It will not be necessary for the planet to get so much closer to the sun and for the temperature to go up such unknown degrees, never experienced in any era of this planet.

Now you understand, companions, what the Council of Ancients is deciding as the future of this race, for the triumph of My Sacred Heart.

Do not be sad, but rather further strengthened, because I need you to be strong here, more decided, more aware, more open, to aid humanity and all of this planet.

Do not think about what will happen, but about what the world still does not do in a balanced, true, and fair way.

And to complete this meeting, I invite you to be carriers of justice, so that always and in everything you have fair attitudes: in all that you do, in all that you think, in all that you experience, because no matter how small it seems, it will help to balance the world and the harmony of this planet and of all the Younger Kingdoms.

Now I want to leave a request with you: that you strengthen your prayers for Brazil, twice a week, because this people and this land are being very sought after.

In spite of everything that happens in this nation, the triumph of My Sacred Heart could only happen here, and from here to the whole planet.

I ask you not to become involved with what may happen on this surface. The Universe itself will clean up what is in excess, and in this way, I will be able to reforest the nation with valiant souls, who will accomplish My Project in the end of these times.

Remain above the events and in this way, you will also be able to help Me, and you will help many, many souls that remain lost in the events of this surface.

If you pray to My holy Mother for Brazil, Brazil will maintain its original spirit, and conflicts, such as the ones that exist in other nations, will not be necessary.

Remember that Archangel Metatron is the one in charge of caring for your people and you must unite with his Cosmic Fire so that his igneous currents may transmute the contrary currents that bring disturbances to My beloved Brazil.

I promise you that this land will no longer be a land of slaves, but rather of triumphant souls that live in the Love of God and radiate it to the whole world.

Brazil is the Mirror of My Heart and when it suffers, I suffer in silence.

Strengthen your spiritual values and teach simple souls to pray, for in the most humble, as well as in the poorest, exists the support of My Work, which also makes Me come here, time after time.

May the Lord illumine hearts.

May souls avail themselves of the powerful stream of My Eucharistic Heart.

May all drink of the Fountain of Life and the Principle of Redemption of this Earth be renewed.

Amen.

Now revere My Body and thus receive the dispelling of the darkness and the illumination of your essence for the times that will come.

Incense.

We may stand.

Song: "You Are the King."

Know that I am honored to come from Heaven to be able to see you in these times, through this meeting, in which My Mercy expresses itself to all souls, in different ways, in the simple hearts that seek the Truth and Unity with God.

My Heart is filled with joy when I see you so close to Me with your spirits in absolute trust of My Redemptive Project.

I renew all things in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

I thank you for being here today in My Heart.

And today I wish you to radiate more love to the world so that souls may be healed and withdrawn from their captivity, so that the consciousness of this planet, in this end time, has somebody to lean on and whom to trust, without fearing that humanity will once again assault the planet, as in recent times.

The planet also suffers as consciousness; that is why it moves so rapidly in this time and in each event; it is the sign of its suffering, of its agony, of the planetary birth.

Embrace the planet and hold it in the depths of your hearts, just as the planet has always held you in the Universe of Creation, in all that exists, in all that vibrates, and in all that evolves.

Go in peace and be My Peace in the world.

Today I have calmed My Heart with your presence, with the presence of each pilgrim and of each one who prays who has made an effort to give Me their all in these two days, and this makes Me come back here, always.

Do you accept that I come back one more time?

Friar Elías:

He is crying.

Now yes, I must go, but hearing your words with a song that inspires souls to be close to Me: You are here.

Friar Elías:

Let us place our hands in the sign of reception, to receive from Christ His Energy, and then take it to the center of our heart, in an inner communion with His Divine Consciousness.

And let us thank Him through this song, for all that He has given us in these days.
