Apparition of Christ Jesus during the 70th Marathon of Divine Mercy, in Fatima, Portugal, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús

In the Name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

This is the time to reconcile humanity with God before everything happens. This is why I chose again to come to Portugal, not only because of its history, but also because of its events with other peoples and nations, and thus, I come for the other nations of Europe.

I will continue on pilgrimage through these lands, as My Holy Mother did together with the Holy Grail. I will come with My Heart to illumine the darkest spaces of the European consciousness, and your help will be essential for Me.

So, in My Heart and on this afternoon, I bring the treasures of Heaven that will illuminate souls and their paths, so that all consciousnesses may learn someday to live the Will of God and can overcome and transcend human suffering activated by their own will, rather than the Will of My Father.

I know that sometimes the world does not want to listen to this need, to realize this truth. But a very definite time is drawing closer, it is very close, more than it seems for humanity, and it must not take you by surprise. You must be aware and awake so that, at the indicated time, your hearts will dictate the moment of this great event that will place humanity by the side of God, or far from God.

For this reason, from the Celestial Universe, Our Sacred Hearts ask for so many prayers for the world, in order to be able to rectify the errors of humanity and of the peoples, not only the historical errors that have become indelible in many consciousnesses, but also to avoid future errors, so that the harmony and equilibrium of God may be established on the planet.

Your attunement with My Heart is very important, not only through the practices I have taught you over time, mainly through the Communion that I offer you daily, so that your spirits and souls can be nurtured by the Source, but also through all that comes from the Celestial Universe and descends to the world in each moment of prayer and of supplication, of service and of surrender for your fellow being, in each opportunity of again experiencing a Sacrament, and of freeing your consciousness from perdition, from the temptation of these times, from the illusion of the world, from spiritual blindness and from indifference.

On this day, companions, your hearts reached a new step in their awakening. Thus, I bring you this request of continuing to pray from the heart for those who most need it, for those who do not listen, for those who close their ears to the Voice of God by means of His Divine Son.

Today I come to rest in your hearts. Today I come to repose My Spirit in your spirits so that the inner alliance may strengthen between souls and the Plan of God, for all that still must be done and be manifested on Earth, for the Greater Will to be fulfilled.

Humanity must continue to seek the perfect union with the Ark of the Holy Covenant, with that sacred symbol of spiritual ascension that descends from the Kingdom of the Heavens through the intervention of the Divine Son, so that His sacred treasures and His divine impulses may descend over the human consciousness and to the nations, so that the errors may be erased, the deviations may be avoided, human perversion may be stopped, and souls may find again the path toward what is sacred and toward the upliftment of consciousness.

All this may be possible because of the continuity of your daily prayers, the commitment with the school of prayer of My Mother so that more souls may be able to awaken in time, and may find within themselves the meaning and the answer of being here on Earth, not for something material, but for something profoundly spiritual, for a mission, for a principle and a purpose, for a Greater Plan.

My Heart contemplates your inner needs. My ears hear all your pleas. But it is necessary, companions, to take another step so that the Higher Universe may come to meet you and the Greater Source of all the impulses of God may continue to guide you and lead you toward the goal of being able to be part, someday, of the new flock of God that will be born from the miserable and the imperfect, from those who are learning to be redeemed and to forgive. Because it will be the New Jerusalem, the city of light that will descend from the Universe to welcome you all in the Sacred Temple of the Heart of God, in profound communion and alliance with the Father.

The nonmaterial treasures of the Universe must be part of your lives, the attention of your consciousnesses, the reason for living and for existing and for carrying forward a part of the Plan of the Father, in this way you will be helping your Master and Redeemer so that His Work may continue to expand on Earth in this time, outside of His Church, given the need of millions of souls that experience great suffering and infinite agony that only the Love of God will be able to heal and alleviate.

For this reason, your Master and Lord needs intermediaries, not masters but disciples, servants of His Merciful Heart that can represent Him in this time, just as the apostles represented Him in the past.

In truth, I tell you, I come to bring continuity to what I once did on Earth. I unite past time with present time through Real Time, so that your spirits and consciousnesses may receive the same Christic codes that My Apostles from the past once received, as did all those who followed Me with faithfulness and love, with sacrifice, in surrender and in redemption.

You must be part of the story of the Book of God. The Celestial Father still hopes to be able to continue writing a new story in humanity. A story of all those who listen to Christ, who follow His steps and experience perfect communion with Him, responding to His Call without conditions or rules, in obedience, with faithfulness and in profound unity.

I am still waiting for the definition of many of you as well as many of your brothers and sisters that are on this planet, who are a part of the 144,000, who will proclaim My second return to the world, the second Glorious coming of God through His Most Beloved Son, in the presence of the Holy Grail.

If you give continuity to the story that God wants to write through your lives and hearts, nonmaterial treasures will descend from the Universe and will cease to be a mystery to the majority of humanity.

You will know how to work with the sacred tools of God, you will learn through prayer and through the sacred instruments to support this planet during its three days of darkness, and you will be by

My side, although you may not believe that I am there, because My Presence is eternal, unmistakable and undeniable.

And thus, you will fulfill My promises, the promises that I once made to the Celestial Father of being able to again, through My Soul and My Divinity, rescue this sacred people that is humanity, who again were perverted and got lost through the influences of My adversary, which someday will be defeated by your own Master and Lord, with the authority of the Archangel Gabriel.

Celebrate the opportunity, companions, of being conscious, and do not let the planetary inertia absorb you or that the deep sleep of millions of human beings may affect you.

You are now within the great awakening, the opportunity to transform your lives completely, to be the new wineskin in the Hands of the King, purified and sublimated by My Spirit.

As long as humanity does not take the necessary steps to reverse and balance human perversions and all their misalignments, the treasures of the Universe will remain in the Universe until they can be revealed to the entire human consciousness, regardless of religion, color, or nation, because the knowledge of God is for all. The knowledge will make you more aware and available to be able to carry out the Plan of God, to fulfill the great promise of being a sacred people under the principles and the attributes of God, which many call Commandments.

We are still in the time of Grace. We are still in the time of Mercy, with the opportunity of being able to cross the portal toward redemption and of becoming worthy children of God by means of prayer, daily charity, love, and peace with your peers.

As a testimony to this love that I continue to unconditionally give to the world, today I will again consecrate new adorers of My Eucharistic Body, because in them must be the pillars and the great divine structures that will support humanity and the planet when it moves, through the perfect practice of adoration.

Through My Eucharistic Body, find the portal for your ascension and transcendence, for the sublimation of your thoughts and feelings, in order to be able to make amends for all your debts and faults in face of the Celestial Father, Who mercifully loves you.

Through this consecration of new adorers, I again give you the Gifts of God so that you may learn to conceive them within you, through an example of life on the path of prayer, of service, of instruction and of healing.

Those who adore My Eucharistic Body are the ones who will, in the end of times, allow divine revelations to continue in humanity so that all may be more aware and available to be able to serve God.

Those who adore My Eucharistic Body are the ones that balance the planet and humanity in this time and do not allow errors to continue to be generated so that they do not lead souls into perdition and spiritual blindness.

Adoration is a path of reconciliation with God and of profound contact with Me, from Heart to heart, from Soul to soul, and from Spirit to spirit.

Between us, the adorers and My Heart, only the Light that emanates from the Source can exist, which brings healing, forgiveness and renewal to hearts.

Adoration is a permanent practice of concentration and of alignment to be able to stabilize the psychic plane of humanity, from all that it generates in this time, because of what it thinks and what it experiences.

Adoration is a permanent portal of transmutation in which the angels are able to maintain all the balance and the harmony when the adorer simply opens to being before My Eucharistic Heart.

Today I bring you these opportunities and Graces, knowing that this meeting will not be enough for everything that Europe needs today as a continent and as a people, in light of so much history and so many events. Because the salvation of the rest of the nations of the world will depend on Europe, on its charity, on its contribution, on its giving of self and its fidelity to fellow beings, to the one who suffers, the one who has nothing.

That is your main commitment: to step out of yourselves, to completely empty yourselves so that My Love and My Light can enter, so that My Message and My Word not only continue to come here, to Europe, to bless you, heal you and redeem you, but also be able to reach the whole world through your conscious collaboration.

The manifestation of My Second Return will depend on the conscious contribution of humanity, on those who believe in Christ, on those who work for Christ, on those who live in Christ.

There is a part that is up to you all, in perfect equality and balance, in cooperation and in brotherhood. This will allow humanity to not be without a guide, without help in this difficult time on Earth, in which everything, absolutely everything, is at stake.

Unite with My Heart and you will understand what I tell you today, because God does not need your material goods. The Universe needs your giving of self so that you and your material goods can transform into what God needs, just as He conceived it in the beginning in unity, in equality, in fraternity, so that the Divine Spirit, the Love of God may always be present.

Let us celebrate this meeting, Let us internalize the Words of God through His Beloved Son, so that the words do not go unnoticed, but rather that the Words of the Father be conscious within you, especially in your hearts, where the Living God must always have a principal place in your lives.

Opening the Celestial Church, summoning all the Angelic Choirs, we will experience this consecration as if it were the first time that Heaven touches your lives to redeem them and change them into light. Amen.

We stand up.

At this moment, each one of you will make their offering before the Celestial Father. In the silence of the heart, you will tell the Eternal Father what it is that you need so that My merciful Heart may gather up your supplications and intentions, and your lives again be transformed.

"Father of the Universe and of Grace, just as You gave Yourself through Your Son on the Cross for an immeasurable and infinite unknown Love, today surrender, Lord, through Your Son, so that souls may vivify Your Spirit and live the experience of Your Love, which will raise them and bring them the awareness of accomplishing Your Divine Purpose. Amen."

By the water that emerged from My Side, today may souls be washed so that they can experience spiritual communion, and in this way, achieve redemption.

Now bring here the elements for the consecration of the adorers so that the Lord can bless them.

Just as My Mother lived Her virginity, I invite you to live My immaculate Spirit, the immaculate Spirit of God that emerges like a Fount of Love through His Son. Because My ardent desire is that your hearts learn to be pure, not only in consciousness but also in intentions, because if your hearts are pure, you will achieve the Kingdom of God and will enter into It without any impediment.

Each practice of consecration, each new step that is taken by the children of God is an opportunity to awaken, to be committed to the Plan of God and to surrender to the Christic life.

This is why today I especially bless these elements that will represent a stage of your lives on the path of the consecration of the Spirit, of the conversion of the soul, and of the transformation of life.

May the Grace of God descend into them and may that Grace be reverently cared for and protected by each one of those who today will be consecrating themselves, as well as by those who are already consecrated, because in the simplicity of all that exists is the Living God.

Be the example of My Life on Earth, testify to My Message for the world, represent Me in truth, without fear and without obstacles, because I take you into account, I contemplate you with My Heart, and I hold you in the temple of My Spirit.

May the instruction elevate and redeem you.

For those who also adore Me, I make the sacrifice of coming to the world again, so that souls do not lose the joy of living in God and of finding the meaning of being here on Earth, fulfilling an unknown Divine Will that, for the heart that opens, reveals itself in life with clarity and precision.

Today I come to renew the sacrifice of the Lamb of God through the transubstantiation of the elements, of the bread and the wine.

At the Table that was consecrated by the Father and by His apostles, we will again celebrate by giving the world the Blood and the Body of Christ, for the salvation of humanity and the planet.

At this Altar, consecrated on this day, where the men and the women of the Earth recognize the Son of God through His Eucharistic Body, I invite you to kneel to remember the last Supper of your Lord together with His apostles.

In deep joy and love, I took the Bread, giving thanks to God, His Spirit blessed it, I gave it to My apostles, saying to them:

"Eat all of It, because this is My Body, which will be given for humankind for the forgiveness of sins."

We praise You, Lord, and we bless You (repeated three times).

I then lifted up the Holy Chalice to the Heavens, the Father blessed it with His Spirit, I gave it to My apostles, saying to them:

"All take and drink of It, for this is the Chalice of My Blood, the Blood of the New Covenant, which will be spilled by your Redeemer and by the martyrs for the remission of sins. Do this in Remembrance of Me."

We praise You, Lord, and we bless You (repeated three times).

In union with the Most Holy Trinity, repeat the prayer that with such Love I taught you:

(Our Father (in Portuguese))

"This is the Lamb of God, who redeems and forgives those who are lost, who with His Fire of Love, vivifies and reignites those who live in Him and proclaim His Name. Amen."

I taught you to love one another, and it is something that humanity still has not understood, but those who are awake in Me know the importance of unconditionally and truly loving their fellow being.

For this reason, I invite you to renew yourselves in love so that your wounds may be closed and the inner sequels be dispelled, and you feel the joy of living in love and for love, just as I live for you all of the time.

Today I not only leave you My Peace, but also I leave My Love so that the Peace and the Love of God may be in you and in the world.

In fraternity and in love, you will give one another the greeting of Peace.

I thank you for being with Me today.
