APPARITION OF CHRIST JESUS DURING THE 75th MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY, IN THE CITY OF MANAUS, AMAZONAS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

Before God existed, in His Divine Essence, He had already thought of the Creation. With this, I want you to understand the infinity of His Love and His Mercy for His children of this humanity.

If He, before existing, thought of the Creation, what is it that moved Him to carry this thought forward, to feel in His profoundly spiritual Heart that a Creation should exist that was so vast and infinite that the human being of the surface still does not know of it?

And within this Creation and this infinity, there should manifest the Kingdoms, the civilizations and all of life, that the human being still does not know, even in the present, at this moment.

Do you know what this impulse was that moved God, from His divine essence, to manifest the Creation?

It was Love. An eternal Love that is inextinguishable, a Love that never dies, a Love that renews, that transmutes, and that liberates, that brings the opportunity of finding goodness and wisdom to the consciousness of the children of God.

It is this Love that has brought the Son of God here to be able to tell you these things and so that you may perceive, at this moment, the importance of taking care of and protecting the Creation; in this case, companions, this planet and this human project, which has still not concluded, and that still moves toward redemption, must be defined in order to enter into a new stage.

From the beginning, God knew, within the probabilities of the Universe and within the learning of all of His children, that this current moment in humanity could come. The Father already knows everything; it is His children that know nothing. That is why you must trust in the Eternal Father, because there is a Greater Will that not only rules you, but also guides you in the fulfilling of a purpose, of a destiny and of a mission that is still not within everyone's reach.

You must trust, companions, just as the Son of God trusted up to the last moment; on the Cross, on top of Mount Calvary, where, in the greatest suffering and agony, the Son of God did not doubt; He trusted in Divine Will, in the destiny of this purpose.

And in this way, what God so hoped for was accomplished: that His children of the Earth should learn the Love of God with God Himself incarnated in the Person of the Son, which is what in this time, companions, leads to My being here at this moment with you, speaking to all of humanity, knowing that as a race you face a crucial and definitive moment in which, with the great test of your lives, you must define what will triumph: love, or will indifference prevail? This is also for all of the Creation, not only in your human persons, but also for the Kingdoms of Nature.

The human being of the surface still has not learned to live in balance with the Creation; they have completely abused Creation and exploited it, and continue to do so. But that cannot continue to happen; there is a limit and an end also exists. I come here so that this end does not come, so that you may become aware, not only you who are here, experiencing spiritual growth and surrender, but also your brothers and sisters may become aware, those who are more asleep and hypnotized by the world.

Thus, companions, today your commitment expands, not only in the living of your spiritual mission, but also in your unconditional service to your neighbor, who must also have the opportunity and the grace that you had. Because when that end draws near, there will be no more time.

For this reason, I am here. Not only to be before you, to keep blessing and consecrating you, to bring you into My Heart and to the center of My Being, but also to tell the world that there is still a little time to change and expand the consciousness about what this sacred project of God truly means, not only on this planet but also on others.

All of Creation is attentive to the movement and the actions of humanity. Have faith that if you change from the heart and transcend any resistance, God will always welcome you and will receive you, and it will be such a real and profound response, that it will allow you to see deeper matters than what you see today; it will allow you to understand the reality of these times, just as the Hierarchy understands and sees it.

At this moment, there is nothing more you have to do but respond to the call of God and place within the center of your beings, the situation of this planet and of this race, so that Love, Peace and Mercy can redeem and transform the consciousnesses that need it.

This is why today, beyond My Presence and My Being, I bring you the great vault of Universal Creation, where the Divine Thought that created you and the deepest feeling of Love that manifested you dwells.

In this vault of Universal Creation is to be found sacred knowledge, this knowledge that has spiritually nourished you up to this moment, this knowledge that was known not only to the patriarchs and the prophets, but also to many civilizations that passed through this planet.

You, as the current human project of humanity, must keep in mind that you are a part of a story that is being written and that this story, which must be pure and sacred for of the transformation and redemption of your lives, must be within this great universal knowledge, within the sphere of the sacred vault of God, where universal knowledge has its expression and gives impulses, both for you and for other civilizations, to not only achieve an awakening and evolution, but for the different schools of the degrees of love.

If up until today you are unable to love your neighbor, begin to love the Kingdoms of Nature. Serve them, give of yourselves, surrender to them, express your love for them and you will be able to express your love for all your brothers and sisters; then you will discover, companions, that there will be no differences or limits for expressing that love, that will first transform you and then transform everything around you.

Bring relief to the Kingdoms of Nature and each situation that you find on your path, solve it, attend to it, assist the Lower Kingdoms, bring relief to suffering, just as God gives you His Mercy, and the world will transform, the project will not end, the evolution of the race will continue and the suns on Earth will shine, just as the essence of the Kingdoms shines, which despite bearing with and suffering by the hand of humankind, give of themselves unconditionally, without ceasing to express the devotion and beauty of God.

In all seriousness, I want to tell you that today you are facing the same moment as Adam and Eve were. It is as if you were in the Genesis, in the Beginning, in the most culminating moment of making a great decision, which will not only influence your lives but also the lives of the whole planet and the life of the rest of humanity. But this decision is not individual, it is of the whole race, of the whole group soul that makes up the Human Kingdom. This decision will also influence the Lower Kingdoms so that they can continue or not on the surface of this planet, because the first thing God will protect is what He created before humankind.

Life in other universes can be regenerated, the Kingdoms in other places of the galaxy can express themselves. Many of them offered before you did to be present on this blue planet, at the end of this local universe and of one of the arms of this galaxy. From such distant and deep places of the Universe, the Lower Kingdoms, known as Kingdoms of Nature, came here at the request of the Creator, to manifest life, beauty, devotion, love, and purity to each one of you.

Thus, you are before a great decision: that ancient errors committed by humanity and still committed today, may be forgiven, and the errors may be absolved by the compassionate hand of God, through the intervention of the divine and unfathomable Mercy of My Heart.

But if this response, which must be an affirmation of each one of your hearts concerning the Project of God and the Kingdoms of Nature, is weak, the laws will come forward. I speak not only to you, I speak to the entire world, to all those who must learn to respect Nature and the Creation that God has given them.

Be aware of your actions, of your movements, in order to no longer hurt the Creation. And in this way, the planet, which suffers in profound silence, will transmute itself and will again give surface humankind a chance.

Maybe you will not succeed in having hundreds of people or governments stop cutting down the trees. But if your attitude and inner decision were true, you would provide an opportunity and merit so that those souls, so sinful and ignorant, may receive the opportunity of becoming aware of what they are doing, and of reversing it forever.

Everything that I give you is an example. The situation is deeper than what it seems and the gravity is broader than what can be seen, because it is not only something material, but also spiritual. And in the spiritual, which is non-material, surface humankind, all of humanity, must not lose contact with God, otherwise, they would lose the project. So more expansively love the Kingdoms of Nature and in this way, you will learn to love your brothers and sisters, to support and to bear with the human condition and the actions committed by many nations, through ignorance and against evolution.

At this moment, before the Celestial Father, I come to establish an amnesty that will last some hours, so that souls on the inner planes, wherever they are on Earth, may have the time necessary to make a decision that will change the direction of humanity or not.

So that this amnesty may be granted to the whole world, in the name of all those who at this moment have united, beyond their religion or their belief, for the Creation and Nature of this planet, I will offer the consecration of the elements, so that this amnesty may be granted to inner beings and in a profound reflection, in a profound introspection, the decision may be taken and everything, from what Adam and Eve did up to the present, may be absolved by the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

The whole Universe will be attentive to the movement of the inner planes and to the decision that souls will make during the following hours, because it is a universal decision.

We may stand up.

Before the Spiritual Church of God, through the Divine Son, we will renew our vows and affirm our faith, by means of the fulfillment of the Sacred Will in the human consciousness and on the planet. Amen.

Just as the bread and wine that will become the testimony of the Love of Christ is offered on the altar, through His Body and His Blood, we offer ourselves sincerely in this moment before the Creator, so that He may reveal His Mysteries to us, and guide us through His Will.

We make our inner offering before the portals of Heaven.

And in our inner world, we contemplate the majesty of the Love of Jesus, not only in His Words but also in His Presence, in His Spiritual Presence.

In this moment, we will relive the sacrifice and Passion of Jesus, a legacy of Love and redemption that He left for humanity through the Sacrament of the Eucharist.

Those who can may kneel.

At that time, our Lord was gathered together with the disciples, celebrating the institution of the Eucharist. After having washed their hands and feet, he gathered them around Him, in deep silence and love, in union with each of His own, He took the bread, elevated it so that the Father might bless it, broke it and gave it to His apostles, saying to them:

"Take and eat, this is My Body, which will be given for humankind for the forgiveness of sins."

We listen to the bell strikes.

We repeat together:

We praise you, Lord, and we bless You.

Together:

We praise you, Lord, and we bless You.

We praise you, Lord, and we bless You.

Amen.

He then took the Chalice into His Hands and in an expression of a deep Love for the sacrifice He would live, He elevated it so that the Father might bless it, and then gave it to His apostles, saying to them:

"Take and drink, for this is the Chalice of My Blood, the Blood of the New Covenant, which will be shed by your Lord for the remission of faults; do this always in remembrance of Me."

Together:

We praise you, Lord, and we bless you (repeated 3 times).

Amen.

In union with the Sacred Heart of Jesus, we will repeat the prayer He taught us, to finish consummating this consecration.

Prayer: Our Father (in Portuguese)

Let us cover the elements.

Know, companions, that everything the human being does in this time will influence the Universe much more than it seems. That is why the Father sends His Divine Messengers, so that His Sacred Word may be heard and resound in hearts, so that souls may feel encouraged to take the necessary steps on the path of transformation, of fraternity and of peace.

This is why I leave you My Peace and I establish this Peace on this first day upon all of the sacred Amazon, in which many Kingdoms unknown to you, by means of the prayer of the heart carried out today, were profoundly alleviated and rescued, so as to have a new opportunity in the school of spiritual evolution.

May peace be in you and may peace be shared wherever you go.

May this stream of peace awaken hearts and bring wisdom to those who govern.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

In My Presence and in unity with the Universal Creation, you will give one another the greeting of peace.

I thank you!
