

Sunday, April 5 of 2020

APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS, DURING THE HOLY WEEK, DAY 1, IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

At the doorway of the Mysteries of Love that I brought to the world during the sorrowful Passion of your Master and Lord, today I bring to the world the Presence of God, the Presence of Emmanuel.

In this way, at this moment, God is with you, just as you are with God.

And this Mystery which is being presented today to the world is one of the many revelations that the Apocalypse will bring to humanity, although humanity may experience its time of Armageddon.

So that God may be a long time with you through the Presence of Emmanuel, you must continue to go deeper in your inner union with the Father so that He, directly from His Source of Love, of Mercy and Pity, may send to the world that which hearts need at this moment to be able to overcome these difficult times.

Each one of you, as well as those who will awaken in the future, will learn to contact God in the way that each one can recognize and represent this within themselves, in their hearts.

It is through these words that today I can bring you the Presence of Emmanuel, which is represented through the Omega symbol, with it an end is coming for all of humanity and the Universe. An end that will bring many more revelations, will bring more awareness and more discernment for humanity, until the greater part of the beings of Earth may recognize, in this moment and at this time, that they distanced themselves from the Eternal Father to honor, adore and praise the gods of modernity and the innovation of these times.

But, as I know, companions, that hearts are awakening to that reality, they are beginning to perceive that the end time has now come when the Great Portal is presented to enter onto the path of return to the House of the Father.

The Heart of Emmanuel hears the supplications of His children. The Heart of Emmanuel accompanies the moment that humanity experiences today and, with Him, all His angels and hosts of Light that, at the foot of His powerful Throne eternally adore the Father through the Eucharistic Heart of His Son, bring to the world the help the world needs in this cycle.

The more souls that return to God, the sooner that which humanity is experiencing in this cycle will end.

But if that does not happen, if hearts do not repent and make sacrifices to repair the injured Heart of God, greater tests will come to humanity, and these tests will be unknown. The more the people of God plead, the more hearts truly repent and do not delay to do so, the less the time of suffering will be, even though they may be experiencing the first part of this planetary Armageddon right now.

If Emmanuel is among you, you will be within the Plan of God and of the great Consciousness of His Will. Thus, your souls and hearts will be inspired to rebuild your lives, according to the declaration of the Commandments of God, and in this way, you will reconsider and again enter the path you lost through different circumstances.

Today, in the name of Emmanuel, of the God among us, I come to give this message to the world, because there is still little time for the greater part of humanity to make the change it needs and thus receive all the codes from the Universe that it needs, all the inspiration it needs to be able to again elevate this humanity that moved away from Love, Forgiveness and Redemption.

On this day, My Eucharistic Heart offers itself to the world again, not only so that the angels and the hosts of Light may adore and contemplate it, but also so that the souls of the Earth may honor and glorify the sacrifice of the Son of God, made for each one of you during His sorrowful and agonizing Passion.

It is through this Eucharistic Heart that I bring you this opportunity and this Grace so that, through My Eucharistic Heart, through the Adoration of the Sacred Eucharist of the altar, souls may be forgiven, and through the Merits that your Redeemer achieved, souls may rectify their lives and consciousnesses, beyond the errors committed, to again be placed on the path of Redemption and Love.

What I say to you today, companions, is nothing new; you have heard it in different forms and through the teachings that I have left in the Gospels. But you need to expand your consciousnesses even more so that wisdom and discernment can come into your lives, knowing that at this moment it is important to make correct decisions in order to experience correct results.

It will depend on each one of you as to whether this can happen or not happen.

Through this Sacrifice that is being offered today by the Son of God at the beginning of this Sacred Week, I begin to prepare you, in a more conscious and true way, for all that the world is facing at this time and for all that the Universe is participating in with what humanity is going through.

Nothing that is happening is out of place. Humanity is having the opportunity of recognizing its errors and, through sacramental and prayerful life, to make amends for all the outrages committed upon the Heart of the Celestial Father, especially by those who, being called by name, did not accomplish their mission and turned their back on the Master and Lord.

In this way, you will understand, My beloved companions, the scope of this request and the concealed meaning of this situation that I present today to each of your hearts.

Because with that awareness and that preparation for these definitive times, you will experience true religiosity, beyond dogmas or beliefs.

I need you to live the religion of Love, spiritual, divine and essential that your Master brings you through His Presence for all the souls of the world.

Today I speak to you, as adults on the spiritual path, so that each one may definitely recognize what they should no longer do and what constantly removes them away from the path, from My path of Love and Light.

Reconfiguring your consciousnesses and lives, transforming your souls and hearts, your spirits will be redeemed and you will be those stars of Light upon the surface of the Earth, which will help to illuminate the times of darkness that the race is experiencing at this moment.

And I will give you the power of the Light, through the power of Love and Unity with the Father and, in this way, Emmanuel, the Almighty, will be among you and will be with you, laboring and working after two thousand years for a new redemption of humanity.

Avail yourselves, then, of the spiritual and divine Sacraments that I will impart for this Holy Week. That is the spiritual reason for My being here, it is the primary and fundamental reason for My being here; so that My companions, believers, devotees and the faithful may each day become more aware and discerning about what is necessary to do in this time, and about what is no longer necessary to do in this time.

In this way, you will rapidly mature and your hearts, as I have seen many times, will be accessible so that I may avail Myself of each one of you, and not only share My Graces and My Mercy but also share My pain, so that together we may transmute and sublimate it with the same strength and power of Love, just as I did on the Cross up to the last second of My life.

And so today, from My Heart emerges the Rays of the Divine and Unfathomable Mercy, the Blood and the Water, that justifies the errors of human beings and brings the Grace of conversion of the heart.

If your souls, consciousnesses and inner beings open wholeheartedly in this Holy Week that I am inwardly sharing with each of My Own, many will be the wonders, more quickly will suffering be dissolved, and souls will again find the meaning of having come here to Earth to serve God and fulfill His Plan of Love.

This is why My Heart opens during these eight days, to receive the offerings of each heart, the offerings of souls and consciousnesses that, accepting and recognizing the sorrowful Passion of the Lord, surrender as victims of My Love so that more and more souls on the surface of the Earth may rectify, as did the Redeemer, the great errors of the human race, in this biologic war that has been built and that absolutely alters the original Project of the Creator.

But do not forget,

and at this moment, Jesus points to Heaven and says to us:

If Heaven is above you, it is because God is above you. And if Heaven descends upon you, it is because God is among you and it is His Will. Nobody and nothing will stop it, even though nation may be against nation, though illness abounds on the surface of the Earth and suffering gets worse in the world, the heart that believes and lives in Christ will not perish, for it will have eternal life, and up to the last days on Earth it will glorify, among those who will lament for not having recognized the coming of the Messiah in His spiritual and divine return to the world. The hearts that had been living in Christ will celebrate in the Name of Jesus and will receive the coming of the Master, as it was written. So be it.

Now that your souls have allowed to be shaped by My Hands to build a new instrument in the Hands of the Lord, today I want you to offer yourselves as empty chalices so that I may take you in My Hands, I may pour out My Blood, to give you My Body and, in this Communion, we may offer the Father each one of your lives, for the redemption of the planet and the triumph of the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

This is the moment of your offering and surrender at the doorways of the New Jerusalem that today descends to the world through the infinite Power of Emmanuel so that all may enter into the spiritual Sacred City which you will inhabit during the thousand years of peace; a City that will be elevated and erected, integrated and constituted by the redemption of souls, by the faith of hearts, by the blessing that each spirit has received from Me.

This is the moment of your surrender, of your sincere offering to the Creator so that the power of My precious Blood may wash you and purify you, and you thus may be perfect models at the Altars of God.

Offer yourselves. Offer yourselves. Offer yourselves as empty chalices in the Hands of the Redeemer, at this new Supper that I celebrate today with each of you, for the descent of Mercy in each space on Earth.

Offer yourselves and become empty. Offer yourselves and become empty so that My Will be done rather than your own, so that in My Will, you may live Truth.

Offer yourselves and become empty. Offer yourselves and become empty by the merits that Jesus achieved on the Cross and so that the priestly life on Earth may again uplift all those who have fallen into the abyss of illusion and damnation.

Offer yourselves and become empty, like chalices, in the same way that angels offer themselves in adoration and in glory by the Name of Jesus and the fulfilling of His Plan of Redemption.

Offer yourselves and become empty, because you have already entered My spiritual Church, which dwells in you through Communion with the Blessed Sacrament.

I once said to you: "When two or more are gathered in My Name, I will be among them." And today you are many more than two; you are hundreds that listen to My Word in the whole world. Thus, for this cycle, I have chosen to send My Message through the English language, so that it may reach all hearts that have need of My Word.

Although I may have chosen this humble place, someday, My Church, spread throughout the whole Earth, will have to recognize what has happened here, when I rise up to Heaven and no longer return here.

This will happen in time and they will come here seeking My Graces, as well as coming to seek the Graces of My Mother, the Virgin Mary, and of My Father, the Chaste Heart of Saint Joseph. Because what descended from Heaven in this place will never be lost, for it is not something palpable, but rather profoundly spiritual, inner and nonmaterial. It is something that comes from the Father through His Will.

And even though the Earth may tremble, the mountains split, even though the seas may rise and the forests burn, even though many animals may be lost and the screams may be heard, on the mountain of this place will be the Almighty, the God among you, so that in spite of everything, you may be filled by His Peace, recognized by His Love, and sanctified by His Spirit, so that each one of your lives as those of the faithful to My Project will also gain merits for those who will need them, at the most culminating moment of humanity, when Heaven and the Word of God have withdrawn from the world forever.

It will be there where I will test you, one by one, face to face, and I will be able to see with My own Eyes what you have done with My treasures, and I will come to seek the talents and the gifts that I left in your hearts so that I may repopulate the Earth with peaceful human beings, with souls that understood, beyond everything, the message that Heaven has brought in these last twelve years.

When the cycle is accomplished, everything will happen, as it is written. But the souls that truly offer themselves to God, although imperfect, will change the events, as have many saints and good servants of peace changed events throughout the history of humanity.

But never forget that this is the end time, the definitive time.

Let us offer God the empty chalices of your hearts so that, in this hour and at the doorways of the New Jerusalem and during this Holy Week, celebrated together with all those who listen and are present with their heart, the world may receive the intervention of the Universe so that it may be healed and again find the path it once lost.

"O Beloved Lord of the Universe, that through Your angels, saints and blessed ones, through all beings of goodwill present on this planet, may this altar be blessed, which during these eight days will represent a small part of Your Work, of Your Grand Work, in all the Universe. Amen."

"Bless this water, Lord, which is the first element that You have created in this world so that souls, at this moment, may return to the Womb of the Mother of God, so that they feel contained, loved and guarded by the maternal outpouring of the Purest Heart of the Most Holy Virgin. May this water bless and purify the whole planet, by Your spiritual power."

My Mother purified Me in the Temple a few days after having been born in Bethlehem. Today I purify you, but I also bless you in the Temple of God, in the House of Our Celestial Father, so that you may receive His Grace and the strength for the transformation for these times.

Today Israel stands up in spirit. The tribes that grew and expanded throughout the Earth glorify the Name of the Lord. And in spite of the times of darkness, souls recognize the Coming of the Lord, the Return of the Son of Man, for these critical times.

Blessed be those who hear the Word of the Lord and live it fully every day, so as to always recognize the Return of Christ in each heart. Amen.

And having purified the apostles of the end times, I invite you to be at My table, at the table of the Blessed Sacrament, to again say to you that today I again take the bread and offer it to God for the redemption of the human race, so that it may be blessed and transubstantiated into the glorified

Body of Christ. And so I give it to you, saying: "Take it and eat it, for this is My Body, which today is given for the world for the forgiveness of sins."

We praise You, Lord, and we bless You.

We praise You, Lord, and we bless You.

We praise You, Lord, and we bless You.

Amen.

And today I have in My Hands each one of the empty chalices of your hearts and filled by this wine of renewal, I offer it to the Father, so that it may be blessed and transubstantiated. And then I again give it to each one of you, saying: "Take it and drink it, for this is the Chalice of My Blood, the Blood of the New Covenant between souls and God, the Blood that today is poured out spiritually upon the world for the remission of all faults. Do this in remembrance of Me."

We praise You, Lord, and we bless You.

We praise You, Lord, and we bless You.

We praise You, Lord, and we bless You.

Amen.

The Body and the Blood of Christ! May those called to avail themselves of this Sacrament be happy, so that the Mercy of God may descend and souls are exalted in joy and gladness, until the return of your Master and Lord.

In union with the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, united with all those who listen throughout the four corners of the Earth, united with My Merciful and Eucharistic Heart, through the strength and the power of prayer, let us decree the prayer that I taught you at the Mount of Beatitudes.

Our Father (in Spanish)

Let us say the prayer in English.

Our Father (in English)

May Peace descend on Earth.

Renewed by the power of this Sacrament, which renews you in your spiritual, inner and physical life, receive this spiritual impulse as preparation for walking together with Me during this Holy Week, so as to relive the merits of the sorrowful passion of your Lord.

I am grateful for the openness and the willingness of those who listen, for a very great Will is being experienced at this moment, and although it may be unknown, I promise you that you will know it shortly.

As an offering for all those who offered themselves this afternoon as empty chalices, as selfless hearts, and before I rise up to Heaven, the place from which I come to visit you, let us listen to an offering that also touches the Heart of your Redeemer, called "You are the King."

I thank you and may peace be in you, so that peace may be in the world, in the souls that suffer the most.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.