

Saturday, April 3 of 2021

APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS ON THE SEVENTH DAY OF THE SACRED WEEK, AT THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDU, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS
DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

We praise you, Lord, and we bless you, for by Your Holy Cross you redeemed the world.

*Amen.
(three times)*

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Behold, the One about Whom was written and announced in the Sacred Books.

Behold, He who reappeared to the apostles of the past, to the holy women and to all those who had faith in Me, beyond what seemed to be the defeat of the Lord.

Behold, He who reappears to you again and who has even been written and announced in the Books of recent times.

Behold, the reappearance of Christ.

You must know that this is the time, that this is the hour and that this is the moment, in which the reappearance of the Lord not only emerges within you, but in all humanity, in all those who have been called to prepare My Return.

We now enter the frequency of Adoration, solemnity and sacred reverence, for the great moment of the Resurrection of your Lord, in the lives of those who believe in Him and who have never desisted from living His Word.

To all those who are in their homes, listening to My message, take a candle and light it so that you are not only in vigil with Me, but so that we are in vigil and restoration for the whole world, for those who still do not live peace, for those who have lost hope, for those who have abandoned their nations and emigrated, looking for an opportunity and a dignified life.

Today, on this day of vigil, solemnity and sacred reverence, I honor those who are despised, those who are exploited, all the refugees who have been severely chastised by their own brothers and sisters, by their own cultures, by their own countries, because they have forgotten what love and fraternity are.

For this reason, the efforts of all those who work for peace, for the common good and for service mainly repair the sorrowful Wounds of My Heart that many governments of the world still cause Me for being disconnected from the truth, and above all, from God, for being united to the reigning darkness, ambition, illusion and to the false power that subject the peoples and all My brothers and sisters.

Under the spirit of the Divine Brotherhood, on this day of vigil, solemnity and sacred reverence for the Resurrection of your Master and Lord, I come to meet you to resurrect you in spirit, soul and consciousness, so that everything may be renewed, not only in you, but also in your brothers and sisters, in those who need it the most, in those who cry out for peace and relief from suffering.

Therefore, My Restorative and Consoling Spirit, on this Hallelujah Saturday, visits in omnipresence all the refugees of the world and their refugee camps so that they may have faith that I will return and make all things and situations new, gathering around Me the innocent, the poor, the children, women and men, the elderly and the ill, so that I can heal them again with My Presence and My silence.

I am the One who has resurrected, time and again, through My apostles and followers, through all those who are part of the Sacraments, through all those who believe in forgiveness and reconciliation.

For this reason, may this flame that you have in your hands today be the coming of the Holy and Sublime Spirit, who once arrived at Pentecost and entered the sacred Cenacle of those who, like you, were waiting for the Resurrection of the Lord.

May the sublime Flame of the Holy Spirit inundate you and fill you, and may the symbol of this light that you have in your hands today reach the whole world, especially those who are in the refuges and in all the shelters of the world, waiting for an opportunity, waiting for the hope of the return of love and joy in each of their lives.

This Saturday of vigil, solemnity and sacred reverence is instituted as the "day of the innocents and of all the refugees of the world" so that the authorities of this planet receive the Science of the Holy Spirit and, above all, sufficient sensitivity to feel pity, compassion and love for those who suffer unjustly, for those who are governed by a system of adversity and chaos.

I come to re-erect all the suffering essences, in the four corners of the Earth, who live in refugee camps and who today are immigrants who have lost their identity, their dignity and, above all, their faith in hope.

This is the reason for also having died on the Cross, for having given My life for all, so that human fraternity would never dissolve in the world, and thus the Christic quality, incessant spirit of service and constant self-giving may always be present in the hearts that awaken to the Plan of God and to a given life and service for this humanity, even if they have no religion; they too can be part of My Christic Spirit of charity and giving.

Thus, on this day of vigil, solemnity and sacred reverence, I contemplate a world wounded, outraged, indifferent, subjected, enslaved, exploited and darkened by the forces of evil. But remember that the true victory of the Kingdom of God is within each of you. That is where evil is overcome by faith, love and the constancy of noble hearts to the resurrected Christ.

May this light, which you have in your hands today, accompany you for the end of times; and may this light, which comes from the Breath of the Holy Spirit, renew you and always give you the impulse to transform your own lives and the life of the whole planet.

While I am here and you accompany Me in this sacred moment of vigil, solemnity and sacred reverence, My Spirit is, at this moment, reaching the hearts of all the refugees of the world and, through them, reaching the authorities of this humanity, so that they can resume the path towards the House of the Father, towards the fulfillment of the Will for this planet and this humanity.

Now, make your offering for those who are innocent, so that those souls, moved by the breath of the Holy Spirit, reach their interior resurrection on this day of vigil, solemnity and sacred reverence.

We are going to intone the Names of God so that the Presence of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit may fill all refugee hearts, all the souls on Earth who must awaken to My consoling Love.

I am listening.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

Let us all stand, and also those who are in their houses and homes, to receive through the Sacred Heart of Jesus the Presence of the Holy Trinity, on this day of vigil, solemnity and sacred reverence.

Song: The Names of God

Let us pray together.

Come, Holy Spirit,
Illuminate the hearts,
so that they may achieve the Transfiguration of Jesus.

Amen.
(seven times)

Now feel how your spirits, in the depths of your beings, how you are resurrected through the Presence of My Light and My Consoling Spirit in each of your hearts; how the Holy Spirit brings the awakening of science and wisdom to all consciences in these critical moments, so that more are serving, so that more are given, so that more are willing to give their lives for and to others in order that the common good and human fraternity be fulfilled beyond religion, social class, cultures, ethnic groups or any condition; may all be transfigured by the Light of My Sacred Heart so that they may achieve peace and mutual solidarity, and thus all feel themselves as brothers and sisters in Christ and for Christ, so that the world and its Kingdoms of Nature may also be repaired through awareness and works of love that all beings on Earth need in order to be redeemed one day.

And now, as a second impulse of Light from My Heart, united with the Guardian Angels and the Angels of Heaven who accompany Me and are present throughout all directions on the planet, we will intone, with a spirit of solemnity, the "Pater Noster".

Song: Pater Noster.

The holy women sang together, on Holy Saturday, awaiting the Resurrection of the Lord.

When I ask you to sing, it should be spontaneous and not thought of with the mind, but felt with the heart, because it is the soul that emits the sacred sound of the universe so that, under the divine connection, the doors of Heaven open and angels can work.

Perfection is in the love expressed in each note, in each melody, as in each word. It is through this that My Love is renewed through the voices that offer themselves, throughout time, to sing to the Lord.

Before leaving Aurora on this day of vigil, solemnity and sacred reverence, and of making you enter My Celestial Church again so that you can live the Spiritual Communion of this day of vigil, I will ask you for one last song, which this time will come from Figueira. A song that expresses your effort to live My Will, My Designs and, above all, the encouragement to concretize the apostleship throughout time, through the heart.

That song is called "That which I am, this I give you."

In this message and in this music are expressed the ardent aspiration of a soul to be sustained in Christ and to not perish. For this reason, this song should be akin to all in this planetary moment, in which the service and humanitarian self-giving for your brothers and sisters of the world will be what will forge within you, not only the warrior of Christ, but also the server, the apostle of love.

Today, I thank you with sweetness, for having come to meet Me, once again.

I bless you and give you My Peace.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.