APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDU, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, FOR THE 120TH MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen

Consciousnesses of Light permeate the Earth. Eternal and cyclic Councils present themselves on behalf of the entire Hierarchy to help humanity, to amend the errors that were committed in the world, so that in the ardent aspiration of God, the Sacred Project of the Father in this humanity may be corrected.

For this reason, these Consciousnesses of Light permeate the Earth with universal forms and matrices, so that the spirit of each being that dwells on this planet, on a set day and at a set hour, may receive the Message from Heaven, the last and great Message of the Hierarchy, moments before the last stage of purification of the Earth is defined.

Before this happens, most consciousnesses must already be awakened and remember their commitment, that commitment that was signed in the Universe moments before their incarnation.

This means and represents that the most intimate circles of the Brotherhood are now closing. The doors of the call are now closing and, by Grace and Mercy, this call with a set day and hour, this Message of the Universe that will descend upon the inner worlds, will knock on the door of the heart of each being so that, for an instant, they may remember what they stopped living evolutionarily and spiritually as the premise of the fulfillment of God's Plan.

Today, I give continuity to the Message of yesterday. Remember that I told you that this last impulse would be gradual, because your spirits must learn to bear it, so that, at this last stage of humanity and the planet, the last armies of Christ may materialize the Promised Land, free from personal wills, free from personal decisions, filled with the Spirit of God, filled with His Divine Cosmic Impulses.

This will be the New Earth. This will be the moment of the emergence of the New Humanity, which will commune again with the Higher Laws, and will finally manage to apply them to material life, because the duality that condemns you will no longer be there, there will only be the Divine Unity that will open for you the doors to the Gifts of the Holy Spirit so that in this way you may repopulate the Earth, after it is purified, with the Values and Codes of God, those values that the people of Israel once received.

Thus, everything will be renewed, although at this moment this may seem to you impossible or even unreal. Everything will be renewed because I will already be present. You will no longer have to wait for Me, you will just have to welcome Me with open arms and hearts, to live with Me the last and great Communion, which will consecrate you as the New and Last Christs.

That should be the aspiration of all those who follow Me and all those who listen to Me.

That should be the flame that shines in the darkness of this planetary night.

That should be the ardent wish of My companions of the end times, and for this you should tirelessly work until the end, doing all that is possible and a little more, so that this New Earth may be possible.

However, this New Earth, which is now permeated by the Consciousnesses of Light of the Universe, must first emerge in yourselves, and then be a reality on the surface, something concrete and truthful.

I have been working for this since My incarnation on Earth until the present, and the consciousness of the planet knows this in its deepest silence.

Does the consciousness of this single race and humanity know it by now?

There would be no reason for My being here, if not for this great spiritual cause, which must be broadly fulfilled in all the disciples that follow the steps of the Hierarchy.

Therefore, I remind you again that I Am the only Way, I Am the only Truth. I Am the Life, for the one who seeks to live in Me and through Me. And being in Me, nothing else will be needed. Because I have wonderful things kept for all, although very few accept them.

From My Hands and, above all, from My Heart, Graces overflow for souls. Who will consecrate themselves as this instrument? Who will consecrate themselves as this sacred tabernacle, capable of receiving the Gifts of Christ, to live, express and radiate them?

Do you now understand My emergency? If the cycles of the Hierarchy are now closing, and the doors of the call are now closing, how can I remain with all the Graces of the Father in My Heart? Because the one who surrenders to Me is abundantly blessed by my Graces.

There is no other motive or reason for your lives, but to be with your Master and follow the Master, just as the apostles did, to take to the ends of the Earth the Word of Life, the Living Water that springs from the Fountain of Creation and will heal souls, especially those who suffer the most in this time.

Thus, I bring you once more the revelation of My Grace, so that the most lost souls may also be guided and led to the infinite paths of God.

All of you have committed to Me, at some moment, to be stewards of all souls, of the different groups of souls, who in this end time must also attain redemption.

For it is in what is most simple and anonymous that I work, where no one can see Me, but where all can feel and recognize Me as their Master, the Master among all Masters. In this way, I conclude this spiritual impulse that I have brought you since yesterday.

I invite you, in the name of Love and consistency, to relive these impulses, which I Am bringing to you these days, because you must come out of here quite aware and awakened regarding each one of My Words, as they are the last ones, yet the most precious instructions for My disciples.

This is why I Am presenting here for four times, so that you may comprehend and understand that it is now My last time, just as the last time of Jesus was in the Garden of Gethsemane.

In the simplicity and truthfulness of My redeeming and consoling Love, before you can relive My Passion once again through the Sacred Eucharistic Celebration, I will call here a soul that I have accompanied since the beginning, and whom Aurora physically healed. Although at that time it seemed that everything was lost, because all the souls who are incarnated on Earth and have a Divine Purpose before God, have their hour and moment to receive the great revelation of the Master, the reason for being by My side, following My steps, contemplating My footprints, embracing the planetary cross with Me, which many fear because they do not know it.

What would become of you and the world if I had not drunk from the Chalice in the Garden of Gethsemane?

What would become of the New Earth and the New Humanity, if the Christs of the end time did not position themselves in the lines and commands of the Universal King, beyond all human condition, beyond all suffering and agony?

I do not demand a response from you. I only remind you of the commitment you have before God, just as I reminded My apostles and so many followers of Mine during My public life.

This is why the consecration that we will live now, of a soul that will closely help me in these end times, will also be a consecration for many more souls who need it on the inner planes, so that their paths may become aligned with the Paths of the Father, and these souls, who are not present here, may find again the meaning of living on Earth.

Today, I am speaking to you of the victims of suicide. May the Light of this consecration, which I will personally transmit, reach each one of these souls that are thirsty for Light, love and relief, so that these souls throughout the world may be reborn.

And I also include all those who are mentally sick, and who offer to transmute the mental sickness of the entire planet, something that cannot be compared, due to the degree of suffering that is experienced.

But My Love will always strengthen all those souls and hearts. This is why I will dedicate this space of consecration to each one of them, so that none of them may take their own lives tonight, but rather be reborn and renew themselves day by day under the Light of My Solar Heart.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

We will prepare for this consecration with Christ, and we accompany the task of the Lord in the silence of our prayer.

May those who can stand up to accompany this consecration.

My daughter, your hour has come, the hour for you to be liberated from this cross and embrace My Cross, because, for your service and giving of self, from this day on I will take care of everything else.

Although this may seem impossible, you have lived the miracle of being reborn, you have been My faithful witness for a long time. This is why this consecration, on behalf of all the souls who need it today, will bring you the renewal of My Spirit, and you will be able to meet the strength of My Soul face to face, so that everything you do until the end of your days you may do it for Me, just as you did in the Holy Land, together with My Holy Mother, Mary Magdalene and Mary Cleophas.

Offer this moment to Me in our silence, so that, as the doors of the Heavens open up, I may elevate souls to God through your offer, just as I elevated Lazarus in spirit to God, by resurrecting him when he was dead, through the transmuting power of the Archangel Michael, which He Himself granted to Me at that time.

May the angels, witnesses of Christ at this moment, write in their books this consecration, which I have preciousely waited for so that it might be fulfilled today.

Let us elevate to God our sincere prayers through "Our Father."

Prayer: "Our Father."

As in the sacred Wells of Betsaje, may this water be transubstantiated, transmuted and magnetized by the divine particles of the angels, so that the Mercy of God may be poured out upon the world.

Just as incense elevated itself in honor to the Son of God, to transform the corrupt forms of humanity into incorrupt forms, may Our Father in Heaven receive, in His honor and glory, this incense, which will sanctify the matter and spirit of all those who are in contact with it. Amen.

May this oil anoint those who have lost hope, may it heal souls and sanctify the consciousnesses that are anointed by it, just as your Lord was anointed in each part of His Body by the holy women. Amen.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

I consecrate you in the name of Our Lord, in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Just as the Holy Shroud, which enveloped My wounded and flagellated Body, was a witness of My Resurrection, so may this mantle, which is blessed by My Most Holy Mother from the inner planes, protect the paths of this soul, who consecrates itself to Me.

I bless this wedding ring, which will spouse you with Me in the commitment of fidelity with Christ, in the spiritual union of souls with My Heart.

This is the little symbol of the heart that sacrifices itself for Me. Remember that this Heart, which loves you deeply, must always be adored and recognized as the only Love, the Love of Salvation.

Today, I consecrate you today with the Name Kyrie Eleison, so that you may make My Name reverberate everywhere you go, the Presence of Christ the Savior and Redeemer of the men and women of the Earth.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
