APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS ON THE EIGHTH DAY OF THE SACRED WEEK, AT THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The Feet of the Resurrected One touch the surface of the Earth to bless, heal and redeem it.

Today I also have the special Grace of spiritually contemplating the path of those who have decided to follow the Footprints of the Redeemer anywhere on the planet, carrying My Presence in the human heart that is transfigured by My codes of Light and Love.

I would like you to contemplate with Me the greatness of the miracle of Love in your lives. Even if you still feel imperfection, contemplate for a moment, beyond all this, what the eyes of your Master and Lord contemplate.

Behold, behind Me, the Kingdom of the Heavens, with its angels and archangels, especially the celestial choirs that today surround the Glorified and Resurrected Lord, as well as each one of your consciousnesses, so that, through the Book of Life, which is preciously kept in the Ark of the Holy Covenant, the experiences of love may be written, those which you were able to live in this last Sacred Week and, above all, the reconciliation and forgiveness between brothers and sisters.

Because in truth I tell you that if no one reconciles and forgives themselves or others, what will become of the destiny of this humanity, in the face of so many disasters and wars and so much suffering?

I come here for the last time, on this last day of the Sacred Week, so that you may be witnesses of My Presence in the world and in hearts.

Very great and unknown is the debt of this current world, but greater and more powerful can be the work of Mercy in hearts that respond to My Call, such as your hearts.

Today, the Lord of Israel, the Glorified and Resurrected Lord, cries not only for Jerusalem, as it was in the past, but He also cries for the innocent and those who are tormented in spiritual, moral and human captivity.

My tears become Light for the innocent and today your prayers, not only of this day, but of this entire Sacred Week, including the Spiritual Trilogy of Devotion, Contemplation and Prayer, have become an important spiritual cause for the marginalized, innocent and poorest among the poor, so that they may be helped in this next cycle. Thus, your prayers become roses at the Feet of the Creator.

Your souls prostrate themselves before the Kingdom of the Heavens, just as the holy angels do at this moment, so that the Son of God may be glorified in Heaven and on Earth, and especially in the hearts that seek relief from suffering and peace, just as it was at the doors of Jerusalem.

Today, in the face of the painful scenario of the world and humanity, I come to remind you again of the importance of love, and I come to pray for those who need it the most, so that My healing and redeeming Hand may touch the head of all those in need of love and redemption.

Carry My Graces of this Sacred Week in your hearts and lives. You can now be witnesses of My redeeming Love.

The Lord listens to the prayers of those who cry out. The Lord contemplates the pain of those who suffer, and His Divine and Unfathomable Mercy placates the human miseries so that everything may become redemption and forgiveness.

Today, I come to leave to you the spiritual seal of your union with Me and the union of My Heart with your hearts, so that you may hold on to the Presence of the Lord, who wants to lead you along the path of peace and goodness.

My spiritual task does not end here, in this Sacred Week. The coming times will bring challenges to all, but also promising opportunities for growth, surrender and self-giving, so that the grave errors committed in this time by humanity may be justified by the self-giving and surrender of the consistent ones, and Mercy, instead of Justice, may be poured out.

As an example of all of humanity, there are souls present here today who fulfill an important parable, the parable of the prodigal son. Because the Eternal Father is not severe to the one who makes a mistake out of ignorance or unconsciousness; His Mercy and Love transform the mistaken heart.

Just like the father of the prodigal son, the Father, with His Arms open, places His miserable and mistaken Son on the path of return toward His Heart, where all offenses and errors are diluted, the soul attains forgiveness and Mercy and once again starts from scratch, as each one of you does.

On all the days that will come, you must have the courage, the bravery and the strength to begin anew every day, just as your Master and Lord did at each step of the Calvary. At each moment, although I could not, I started anew, because the power of the spirit united to God is very great, there is no evil in this world that can overthrow the ardent aspiration of hearts.

However, everything has its moment and its time. The triumph of the Love of God in souls has its time and moment. Therefore, you must no longer become bitter or sad. You must cross the door of this place renewed by the full conviction that you have glorified the Lord of the Universe and of Peace, and entrust your lives again in the Hands of God, just as I Am Life in the hearts that surrender to the Lord.

I want you to carry with you what is most precious that I have, the most precious among all treasures, gifts and Graces. I want you to carry with you, in Spiritual Communion, the Love of the Redeemer, which will help you to continue on in these unknown times. It will bring you the hope of renewal. It will help you even in your self-esteem, because your souls and those of your brothers and sisters of the world must no longer be depressed.

Although this difficult time does not help humanity, because humanity becomes compromised outside of the Law of God, you must feel the renewal that I bring, and the absolute certainty that you have found Christ as the Way, the Truth and the Life.

I want to thank all those who made the effort to prepare these meetings. Everything, on all planes of consciousness, even on the material plane, must be aligned with the Purpose of the Redeemer.

The prize that awaits those who have truly surrendered to collaborate with this Sacred Week, is very great. But what is greatest, companions, is that My Love may transform you into what I so much expect and aspire to.

Therefore, before I close this Sacred Week, through the Holy and Divine Communion, I come to give you once more, the Anointing through My Spirit, so that you may carry within yourselves the visible sign of the Cross of the Redeemer, which will accompany you until the end of your days, until it is the moment to conclude this experience on Earth.

Remember that what I give you is inalterable and unchangeable, because it is an eternal and incalculable Grace.

May My Peace encourage you to live in My Peace, so that My Peace may be in you, and My Grace may be in you, so as to be in your brothers and sisters of the world.

Feel yourselves anointed by My Light.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

At the request of Christ, at this moment we will conclude with that with which we began this Sacred Week: confident and renewed by His Presence, transformed by His consoling and redeeming Love, purified in soul, spirit and consciousness, anointed by His Grace and His Light, and by each one of the merits of our Redeemer.

Thus, we will unite through the song of María de los Inocentes (Mary of the Innocents), asking, from what is most intimate in each one of us, that the Grace of the Anointing of Jesus may reach those who most need it and those who suffer the most.

At this moment Our Lord says that each one will know, in the silence of their heart, what soul known by you needs the Grace of His spiritual Anointing.

For this, we will sing as one voice and one heart, giving thanks for the Presence of the Lord in these eight days.

The Lord will draw near His friends and companions.

Let us sing.

Song: "Healer of my soul."

May Light, Grace and Mercy accompany all hearts as a special Anointing of Light.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
