

Monday, July 15 of 2024

APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS IN LUANDA, ANGOLA, AFRICA, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, FOR THE SACRED CALL OF JULY 20

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

That night, while I was with My apostles in the Sea of Galilee, a storm came and darkness embraced them, even though I was present in the boat.

Everything seemed about to precipitate, until they called the Lord because their fears were immense, and their faith was tested before the Presence of the Lord.

And even after everything I had taught them, at that moment they experienced their spiritual test, which is something that the world is experiencing today. This is the spiritual test that each one faces to understand within themselves how strong their faith and trust in God are.

The boat seemed about to break that night. The despair of My apostles was immense, simply because for a moment they had forgotten that they were in the boat with God Himself.

Where lies the limit between reality and appearance, between that which is true and that which is false?

For this reason, that night I demonstrated to them that the anonymous and secret Power of God was capable not only of stopping the storm but also of demonstrating how the faith of each one of them was.

In the face of the storm that the world is experiencing today, in the vastness of its suffering and agony, its traumas and aftermath, how will each one of you, in the boat of the Lord, go through this spiritual storm that is approaching?

Remember that, on the top of the Mount of Beatitudes, I taught you how to pray to the Celestial Father and, in trust, surrender to Him everything that happens to you or everything you experience. However, there is no cause with great victims here but rather an intention for each being of this planet to be aware and responsible for everything they have lived and caused throughout time.

Today, the King of Africa is here, with His sovereign and humble Majesty to deliver, to each one of His children of Africa, the treasure of the Reliquary of My Heart, in its spiritual and divine form, so that you may entrust your beings to the Heart of Jesus and so that you may know that, despite everything, there is nothing greater than My Love, because My Love vanquished on the Cross, it vanquished the sin and errors of the world.

And it is this Love that remains perpetually because it is an infinite, inalterable and immutable Love. It is a universal Love that comes to strengthen the souls that seek it, the hearts that, through the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar, enter into communion with My Sacred Heart.

The time of captivity is reaching its end, the order has been given to the whole universe. And, through the hosts of angels and archangels, the shackles will dissolve, the chains will break, and souls will be liberated so that, renewed by faith and hope, they may joyfully prepare the Return of Christ to Earth, the Return of the Lord, which is announced today through the voices and prayers of the poorest and most simple from My entire beloved Africa.

I come to embrace with My Light all those who need it, especially those who agonize the most in this country and on this continent, because I Am there with them, just as I Am with you today as Jesus, the Nazarene, the One Who preached and taught on the shores of the Sea of Galilee; the One Who resurrected, healed and liberated hearts; the One Who gave His life for you and your brothers and sisters so that, through the Sorrowful Passion, Death and Resurrection of Jesus, as many souls as possible could receive, in this time, the Grace of eternal life; the most important moment for you to be able to enter Paradise, at the end of your days, just as the one who entered Paradise and had been crucified by My side on Calvary and who was able to recognize the Face of the Lord. This redeemed him forever and allowed him to enter the Kingdom of the Heavens, even being a great sinner.

However, here I do not come to point out faults but rather gifts and virtues, the power of the word which, through voice and singing, the sacred adoration to the Lord can express to the Earth and the universe, not only in the luminous form of the Eucharist but also through each inner world and heart that lives in Me and for Me.

Through Saint Isabel's work of charity, I come to make Africa My new seedbed of Light for the world. Because where there seems to be nothing material or human, worthy or sublime, the Lord, in His Return, will reveal the spiritual wealth that has been delivered to the hearts of Africa; a spiritual wealth against which attempts have been made to bury and marginalize, and even abolish; a spiritual wealth that will rise like the sun on the horizon, like a flower that opens to the rays of the Sun to show its most intimate beauty and devotion.

These are the humble souls of Africa. How many important values the world does not know and marginalize! How many souls are incarnated here and have suffered so much, so much, just as your Master and Lord suffered on the Cross!

However, from the apparent defeat arises the power of victory, based on the authentic Love that resurrects life within the hearts that despite everything, and even despite the consequences, trust in the Lord.

On this day, may the promises that Christ made to Africa begin to be fulfilled.

Humanity urgently needs to learn from the spiritual dignity that dwells here, and from the precious, inner and sublime worlds that exist within each soul and each heart.

May the eyes of the world open to come out of blindness and recognize the spiritual universe that dwells and lives in Africa.

The faith of this people, honored and loved by Me, is what sustains the whole world today, and prevents the painful and grave wars from worsening in humanity and in nations.

For this reason, God made Himself humble and poor in a manger, and in this way He will make Himself humble and poor once more, showing His Power through simple hearts, those who perpetually live in faith.

The Call of My Heart to the whole world is reflected on this sacred mirror of water, in My African Galilee, a fertile ground for the seeds of God that will be sown in the coming time; because in Africa an unexplainable Fountain of Graces and miracles will spring, just as Our Most Holy Mother did in Kibeho, Rwanda.

May the voices of the most innocent be heard, may the most hardened hearts soften and open to recognize the need in each place.

It is time to share everything that each one has, because God did not make rich and poor, it was the world that made them. Because God is poor in His Essence, in His Spirit and Divinity, just as His Son is, the King of the Universe, the Bearer of Peace, Good and Mercy.

Although Our Work will be withdrawing in the coming times, know that I will always be able to return here, every time it is necessary and the Celestial Father allows Me. Because the Lord, Christ Jesus, also lives in this time and, in this time, He feels the agony of the world.

I come here so that you may quench My thirst through the love that you give to Me, through the adoration that you offer to Me in each new Eucharist, at each new moment of prayer and sacred praise.

Feel the embrace from the Heavens and from all its dwellings.

May the time of redemption be fulfilled, may peace be established, and may many more resurrect like Lazarus.

I thank you for your goodness and your charity; may these gifts multiply for the whole world.

I give you My blessing and remind you that the Lord comes to seek His dwelling within the hearts of Africa, to repose and rest, just as you can repose and rest in Me when you need it.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.