SPECIAL MESSAGE OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS RECEIVED ON NOVEMBER 4, 2024, IN LA PEDRIZA, MADRID, SPAIN, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

Today, look again at My Heart, pierced and wounded by the sufferings of all the souls of the world.

This is the patient and kind Heart of God through His Son, which in perpetual surrender, untiringly offers itself for the reparation of the grave sins of the world.

My Heart is a balm of hope and sustenance for souls; it is a sacred space where the children of My Father can see and feel themselves reflected, because My Heart is the receptacle that lovingly welcomes the honest offerings of those who say yes to Me.

This is the Heart that offered itself for all the human race through the Eucharist, which was instituted and celebrated with My apostles during the Last Supper.

This is the Heart that, for your redemption, endured the most terrible offenses and suffered the most painful and indescribable martyrdoms so that the humanity of today could be here and the planet would not disappear.

However, who is capable of meditating about this through the sacred teaching of the Sorrowful Way of your Master and Lord? Because at each sorrowful station, you will find the teaching and instruction that you need at each stage of life.

Many were the teachings that I left to My companions, just as, in this time, I leave these teachings mainly to those who have decided to follow Me in fidelity and consecration, regardless of the circumstances of life.

Because the most important thing for the Father is that His beloved children of the Earth may learn to grow in love and to remove from themselves all arrogance and pride, so that the light of their hearts may not be dimmed by the discord and conflicts that the world constantly experiences and can no longer bear.

Imitate My patient Heart. Receive from My Spirit the incandescent flame that will withdraw you from the dark night of the soul so that, by being able to see My Light in the innermost depth of the abyss of the consciousness, you may know and learn how to recognize My Holy Face at the moment of the Return of Christ.

In this hour of pressures and uncertainties for most, may My Heart be the expected refuge of the spirit and soul that welcomes My Words in the name of Adonai.

May your feet continue to travel the pathway toward the total divestment of yourselves and detachment from the past. Thus, your gaze will be able to be fixed upon the horizon to recognize the signs of Heaven that announce the expected time of the Return of Christ.

May your inner hearing, the hearing of the heart, always be open to Me and your fellow beings, for I could be giving you a simple instruction.

Receive My Words, which are the Words of the Celestial Father, because the Word became flesh and once again dwelt among you so that, out of Grace, you might know about the existence of the Kingdom of the Heavens.

I thank you for keeping and living each one of My Words.

I thank Spain for its warm welcome and I pray for those who suffered a total catastrophe in this country, blessed by one of the most resigned and emblematic saints of all times, Saint Teresa of Jesus.

Who blesses Spain,

Your Master,

Christ Jesus
