APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS IN BUENOS AIRES, ARGENTINA, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, FOR THE SACRED CALL OF DEC 20

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

And after the dark night, the Light will return, the inner Light that was created in the Supreme Source by the Eternal Father Himself before everything existed. This inner Light will emerge in a surprising way in the moments prior to My Return to the world.

For this reason, you must sustain yourselves in Me, despite the tribulations and the current moment, because there is no heart that knows each one of you as deeply as Mine and that can console, fulfill, and sustain you in Love like Mine.

I know that today, you cannot comprehend many situations, and I understand this. Imagine how My Heart can comprehend everything that happens in the world in this time.

How much suffering is caused in many nations, peoples and families!

How God Himself, surrendering on the Cross through His Son, suffering and enduring for all of you, receives in first person the response that the world gives Him with more indifference and pain!

But I come here once again, not only to tell you, companions, that you are with Me and must be with Me even more in this cycle, because if I Am the Way, the Truth, and the Life, who will go to the Father, if not through Me?

This is the promise that I made to God at the culminating moment of the Cross, when, after being martyred and crucified, I said to the Father, "Forgive them, for they know not what they do."

The value of My Blood, the Precious Blood of Jesus, is still unknown, but the one who unites to it in prayer and adoration will know it because I have come to bring the precarious state of the human consciousness to an end.

However, I know you may ask Me, "Master, why does human precariousness continue to exist? Why is it that, after You Yourself have surrendered Your entire Being on Calvary and on the Cross, humanity continues to go astray and to distance itself from God?"

Companions, this is the time that was written, the time of tribulation. And you yourselves, with your own beings, will be able to go through it in two ways: in an evolutionary and neutral way or in an attached and imbalanced way.

With this, I Am not saying that what can be seen in this world and reality on the surface is not painful, because the Son of God Himself felt all the pain of the world, the sins and indifference in His own entrails. But remember that Love triumphed and that it is Love that renews you and gives you life and hope.

Yesterday, My Mother spoke to you about the chalices that are upon the altar served for souls. Who will take them and drink from them, knowing that in this time the great victims of My Love are to be found among those who suffer wars, famine, prison, the death penalty, abortion, and disease?

I will come to bring all this to an end because I Am the same as always: the One Who taught you on top of the Mount of Beatitudes; the One who called you at the shores of the Sea of Galilee, just as I call all of you today by your spiritual and inner names, those names that are known in the universe and vibrate in the stars, even if you do not know this.

I will come to be close to those who trust in Me until the end, knowing that after a storm the Sun shines again, and it is the Sun of My Heart that you must always seek in this time, so that the darkness of the Earth may not confuse or disturb you; because the Moon will be cloaked in blood, the Sun will become opaque, the stars will move, the events will present themselves and everyone is already living it.

This is the preamble and it is the time that announces My coming to the world, and Argentina will have a very important task for your Lord at the end of times.

Many prophecies were written about Argentina and many of them will be fulfilled, mainly those revealed by the God of the Universe Himself. Thus, prepare yourselves, do not become lost in superficial and petty things.

When will you decide to submerge into My Heart to know the great abyss of My Mercy?

My Heart does not tire of loving you and loving the world, despite the errors and sin. But here, in this Work and mainly within you, the Law must always, always be fulfilled so that you may be protected from the storms of these times, from the interpretations and confusions of the world; because this Light that God deposited, gestated and created in each one, in the innermost depths of being, is the Light that must shine so that there may be Christs in this time, Christs of the New Time, just as many times, out of love, We have announced.

May your Inner Christ be the reason for being here and for responding to the Will of God, regardless of what each one of Mine must live in these times.

My Hands and, above all My Heart, place peace today where there is pain and anguish.

My Gaze rests where there is darkness and confusion to dispel them.

My embrace sustains those who trust in Me, beyond themselves, because the time indicates that this is the time of apostolate, the apostolate of the selfless and serving heart for those who suffer, close to you and far from you.

Today My Heart is this Sun that illuminates and shines in Argentina. My Sacred Mantle extends over this nation, which has been stricken by injustice and the lack of transparency.

But the one who truly loves, despite everything, will not perish, will never perish because it will not be a self-love or a passing love; it will be a mature love that will be forged within yourselves at each step and above all in each test, at each new challenge.

May your hearts elevate themselves in trust, faith and renewing hope today, just as My Heart elevates Itself in Argentina. Because today My Sacred Mantle is the flag of this nation; the white, the sky blue and the golden colors, the expressions of the Celestial Universe and of the Mantle of the Divine Mother, Patroness of this nation and Guardian of faith.

I want you to follow me barefoot and with clean hands, purified of your own intentions, your own thoughts and your own feelings.

I want you to follow Me with an empty heart, capable of enduring and receiving everything that comes, thinking of the Passion of Christ, your Lord, at each step. Because the triumph of your Master and Lord did not happen in the debate of His Word, when He was unjustly condemned, but rather in the silence, in the solemn silence that elevates the consciousness and protects it with wisdom.

May your hearts be receptive to this moment. There is so much to do in this world! And you know it.

Argentina must not stop. Argentina must advance and this nation will advance through those who follow Christ with confidence and faith.

In the presence of the celestial choirs, the Lord blesses you, congregates and unites you in impersonal and mature Love, in the Love of the Cross, without hesitation and disagreements, in the Love that made possible going through the Agony in the Garden of Gethsemane, in the Love that allowed your Master to take each step on Calvary without retroceding, to advance toward the inexplicable goal that the Father had placed upon His path.

That the Powerful Blood which springs from My Heart as rays of Mercy, may cure, heal and renew you.

You are wayfares of time, wayfarers who have been called to fulfill a Will that cannot be erased or disappear.

Today, I Am here to impel you, to renew you, to give you My Love once again, the Love that will help you mature and grow internally.

Many among you have received the Grace of the Sacraments on these days. Can you value it and know that in them, in each Sacrament, lies the living expression of God's Love?

Feel graced, but also feel gratitude for those who do not have it, for those who deny it, for those who are indifferent. Thus, in this gratitude that will lead you to reverence and simplicity of life, which you must perfect every day, you will keep the door open so that I may return in confidence, faith and love.

For this reason, I bless you to be able to bless all of Argentina, from North to South, from East to West, Argentina, which is the sacred enclosure for many inner relics that in this time must be at the service of souls and those who seek the true Light on their paths.

Thank you for your efforts. Thank you for your adherence and your presence.

My Heart is pleased to be able to come back here and be with My brothers and sisters, and with My disciples of the end times; just as I was with My apostles many times, with Peter, John and so many others who found Me on their paths.

Remember that in My Heart lies the path, the way out, and the response that you seek within you. My Heart burns in Love and Light for those who love, adore and wait for Me, as on this day.

Thank you for the flowers you have offered to Me, because they are not for Me but rather they are glory for My Father, Who is your Father Who is in the Heavens. Because His Universe descends through the Divinity and the Spirit of His Beloved Son, Christ Jesus.

My Heart carries the commitment of your daily prayers within Itself. The world needs to be sustained and this is urgent. You already know it.

May the Light of prayer guide your steps.

May service open the doors of Mercy and Pity.

May reverence and gratitude keep the doors of Heaven open for those who seek peace, consolation and love.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Thank You, Lord, for all that You give us.

In this meeting, we honor You, Lord.
