APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS AT THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, FOR THE SACRED CALL OF JANUARY 17

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

My Voice echoes in the deepest silence of the universe, in which the inner worlds can hear and recognize Me. It is in this deep silence of the universe that the Father seeks the response, through wisdom, science and understanding.

Silence permeates the deepest layers of consciousness, of life and of every vibration, because in this deepest silence of the universe lies the response of God, which many times you try to find or even hear.

So that wisdom may permeate life, silence is the preamble. This sets the consciousness apart from possible errors, because the Wisdom of God is the certainty and conviction of His Spirit, which knows everything and impels everything, in this and in other dimensions. Without this Divine and Inner Wisdom, inner life would make no sense.

What was the first thing that the Father manifested in this Creation? It was the science of His Inner Life, which later on impelled Creation and everything that was created. There this matrix can be found. There this Purpose is revealed for everything that exists, for everything that lives and vibrates in this universe.

Each element, as well as each particle, each atom as well as each cell within this cosmic science, fulfills a purpose and a duty, because it exists so that it may reflect the Will of the Father, just as the holy angels do in Heaven and on Earth.

In this macro-universe of life, in this space of existence, of evolution, each element, particle or life fulfills its Purpose in the manifestation of the spirit, the mind and matter.

It is in this perfect communion, in this alignment with what is higher and internal, that one's own consciousness must be connected, united to and even merged with Creation, so that the Principle of God, which is immutable, may manifest, reveal and build His Will in everything that was created by Himself at the beginning.

Within this infinite Creation you must contemplate the Purpose and Origin, so as to transcend the events, facts and even wounds.

If your consciousnesses do not travel in time-space, where the Divine Life vibrates and exists, the Great Purpose that created this existence, all the universes, dimensions and planes, how will you be able to overcome the end of times?

It is time to look at what is essential within yourselves, because that is where the answer is, that is where the next step is, separated from the ideas and thoughts, from everything that you might believe is better.

God is not to be found there. He manifests Himself and presents Himself to souls through His Sovereign Silence and His infinite Divine and Inner Life, so that He gradually builds His Will through them. Today is the time for you to live this, not only to receive or hear it.

Remember that My Words record a code, an impulse in the ether of the planet, so that this wounded humanity may spiritually resurrect and start anew with hope, with the arrival of what is to come, the advent of Christ.

You must think as the angels do, you must feel the way they do; in that way, you will realize how much it is still necessary to sublimate and transcend.

But it is in the origin of this existence, where the Whole is present and inner life vibrates and is present, that the Love of the Father mirrors itself with power, and puts everything in this universe in its place. But not with Justice, but rather with Mercy, through a Sublime Wisdom so that all that was created may learn to evolve and grow.

You must imitate the nature manifested by God to you, its cycles of withdrawal, as well as its cycles of expression and expansion; because just as the seed sprouts so that someday the fruits may be born, in the same way life loses its own leaves and once again sprouts and re-emerges so strongly, through the Light it receives from Heaven, which strengthens the spirit and expresses the surrender in those who live in fidelity to the Lord, Our God.

Today I want to leave you in this level of consciousness because, when I am no longer with you, you will have to seek, within yourselves and in an impersonal and mature way, the power of love and of faith. This very same inner state that I present to all, despite the different schools you are going through.

However, do not forget what I taught My apostles and the people of Israel: that in the Eyes of God, all of us are equal. To God there is no one better or worse, good or evil, awakened or asleep. God knows who each being is within their inner existence.

Can you, by any chance, value this gift, just as God values it with His amplitude and love?

In this way, you will learn how to see your neighbor with the eyes of the soul, rather than those of the mind. Thus, you will be able to recognize, among your miseries, the Inner Christ, this little spark of Light that God placed in each of His children, so that in this life and in this universe, each one may bear life in abundance.

I believe we are already before the possibility to take this step that I ask of you today, to come out of the conflicted third dimension and enter into the time of the Brotherhood, when everyone is considered, when everyone is contemplated, when everyone is heard without being judged. Because if God had placed His rod upon you, you would not be here.

Do you now understand that His Infinite Love cannot be measured by prejudice? That He, the Almighty, as a Father with open Arms and an expanded Heart, wants to have you close, so as to fulfill His Will?

How many, really how many souls need this and do not have it!

Be attentive to recognize, with gratitude, this Grace, so that in you, some day that is not far away nor distant, the wise Inner Christ may be born, the One who does not measure with a rod, but rather loves through His actions; the Inner Christ who welcomes through His Heart and is capable of feeling the miserable as a part of His own misery. Because this is what I lived for you.

With fervor, embrace My Call, and receive it also as a blessing, as an opportunity to open a new door, which with hope may look at the future and, with determination, may close the door of the past so that you may not become lost in superficial things.

Because in truth I tell you that without love, nothing is possible. How are the degrees of your love? Where does love act in you? Do not forget it.

May God's Wisdom strengthen you. May the Love of God raise you so that you may walk decidedly toward the Purpose, that Purpose which is written in the Heart of God, because we owe Him honor and glory.

I thank those who strive and make efforts to transform themselves, those who can look at the Light of the Face of Jesus every day, in order to be blessed.

May peace promote peace, and may peace grant unity and strength to those who say 'yes' to Christ.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
