

Monday, March 13 of 2017

APPARITION OF THE VIRGIN MARY IN THE HOUSE OF OUR LADY OF THE POOR, CARMO DA CACHOEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARIES FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS AND SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón transmits the Words of the Virgin Mary:

I come here to bring peace to this city and to these people in need.

I come with all My angels to this meeting so that they too can bless you, for they are sent by the Father to close uncertain doors and open hearts to love.

It is for this reason that I have chosen to come here, dear children, to be closer to you and to bring you the good news, the moment that is approaching, long-awaited by all of humanity: the second coming of the Christ. Thus, you must have your hearts ready, not only through confession but also in communion with My Son. These will be the keys that will prepare your hearts for what will come.

I approach you, dear children, to be able to heal your hearts, to again bring you the joy of knowing that the faithful Servant, the Mother of the Most High, the Lady of the Poor, will be here among you every month until My mission of making this city a point of Light and of prayer for the world is accomplished.

This is why I have founded this house with all My maternal Love, so that here, the foundations of service and of prayer, of fraternity and of love among beings are gestated, and thus this work will be carried forward, which not only embraces the entire world, but will also come back here as an endpoint, as the culminating point of My work in these times, requested by My Son through My Immaculate Heart and the union of all your hearts with Mine.

Today I come here with the Holy Archangels so that your spiritual lives may be revived, so that your paths may be purified. And, in the end, upon the horizon, you may again see the Light of My Son, His Glorified Heart that is approaching this region of Brazil so that, during the Sacred Week, He may bless you and administer the Sacraments to all with the luminous sign of His Holy Cross.

Dear children, during this time, I need your hearts simple. In this way, with that simplicity your hearts have given Me today, through your affiliation with Me and your presence in this place, you will allow My Immaculate Heart to continue to come to this house to visit you every month and again bring you My celestial Graces, which will be the source of your reparation and conversion. In this way, you will find reconciliation with God, in the deep inner communion of each of your souls with My Soul and the Soul of My Son, and thus with the whole Celestial Kingdom.

I bring you seven important keys, dear children, that will help you move forward with this mission that I entrust to you today, of being able to make this city a Point of Light for the world. Each of you, dear children, will be a reference point for the pilgrims that will come from around the whole world. In your eyes and on your lips must be reflected My celestial smile, and in your hearts, free of suffering and pain, there must be peace; because My aspiration is to heal each of you so that you may enter into the universe of My maternal Love, where you will only find joy, hope and rejoicing for being able to be in Christ, Our Lord.

So that all this may be possible and the miracles occur in your lives, at a time of great inequality, I invite you to pray with Me, every day. I want this city to become a great Rosary of Light for the whole world, and that each bead of this Rosary of Light, which will be built by you, may represent a group of prayer, a prayerful nucleus, in which the bases of the Sacred Family will be able to express in your hearts and lives through the Gifts of the Holy Spirit.

I want to erect Our Lady of Carmel again. May this city be blessed by that holy name. That Our Lady of the Poor may be in the heart of each one of My children and in each place where needs exist.

Thus, dear children, I gave you the sacred House of Saint Joseph, in this city, where My missionaries of peace live; where you will be able to learn to build a truly fraternal life, a group life based on brotherhood and love among beings, finding in each place the service and a possibility of living the prayer of the heart.

It is in this way, dear children, that I invite you to be a great spiritual family. I invite your families to be renewed through service, prayer and communion.

From Heaven, I bring you all these gifts so that the Celestial Church that dwells in the depths of your souls may be erected again; and My Son, when He returns during the Sacred Week, may find a refuge, a place of relief and prayer, where He may be able to enter into your hearts and lives.

As Lady of the Poor, I invite you to rebuild this city through example and simple acts. If your prayer is powerful and you live it daily, I assure you, dear children, with the authority given Me by Christ, that many things will come to an end and hope will be recovered in many consciousnesses.

For this to happen to all of you, dear children, in the humility and in the simplicity of your hearts, I invite you to take the step, to accompany your Heavenly Mother on this mission and in this purpose that I come to present to each one of you.

Sister Lucía de Jesús transmits the Words of the Virgin Mary:

In the same way that today I consecrate this house, I hope to consecrate each of your homes, so that this city, My children, may be in likeness to My Kingdom, and those who come here from the four corners of this world, seeking peace and reconciliation with God, may find in each of you that path that leads to My Immaculate Heart.

Thus, today I will ask that month after month you announce My Presence in this place; that you take your families, especially the young, to My Marian Center so that I am able to heal them, little by little, so that they find meaning in their lives once again, because the young, My children, are becoming lost due to the illusions and influences of this world, and the desire of the Creator is that His children find Him, that they are able to express unity and a likeness with Him in this time, in the same way that My Son, Jesus, expressed it.

I want you to strengthen your faith, My children, that you strengthen your unity with Me; because I only take you toward Jesus so that you may find Him when He returns to the world, so that you may recognize Him among humankind, so that you may recognize Him walking on the streets, converting hearts and reminding you of your commitment to God.

On this evening, My children, I establish peace in your lives and ask that you open the doors of your hearts to Me so that, with My angels, I may be able to free you, heal you, and place you on a path of peace and of spiritual growth.

I do not come here to found a new religion nor a new church. I come to strengthen the faith that already exists within your hearts.

I know that many love Me and are devotees of My Divine Spirit. Now, My children, you must testify to My Presence in your lives, because I am here to say that I have heard your prayers. I am the response to your pleas, to all those pleas you directed to God for this city to be different so that your children could find peace. I am here, children, as a unique spring of peace. I only ask that you open your homes and your hearts, that you take your rosaries in your hands and pray with Me so that, through the authority granted Me by God, I am able to transform your lives.

Trust in the power of prayer when you unite your hearts with Mine. Trust that, together with Me, the destiny of this city can be different, and it will be able to be recognized throughout the whole world as a source of peace for those who thirst, like a fount of life for those who die in spirit.

I come to convert this ground so that it may become sacred and announce My Maternal Presence to the world; so it may be the example for humanity of hearts that truly prepare for the Return of Christ, because He will come and it will not only be in spirit. All eyes will see Him, all knees will kneel before Him, because, children, you will not be able to resist His Love and His Power.

Those who are His companions will follow Him, and with Him they will establish the Kingdom of His Father. The New Jerusalem, which the ancient peoples so long awaited for, will be visible to human eye because the Will of God will be established and His promises will become life.

Trust in what I tell you, My children, because the world will tremble and hearts will repent for not having woken up in time.

Today I call you by name so that you may be in My Presence. Today I consecrate you and offer you My Peace so that you convert your lives and are truly called Children of Mary.

The Kingdom of God is approaching your lives. The Creator offers you His Love, and it is only necessary, My children, to say 'yes' to the Supreme God.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón transmits the Words of the Virgin Mary:

I come to remove you from hell so that you may enter My Paradise. Thus, today I am here, among you, very happy. You cannot imagine, dear children, how great My happiness is while consecrating new Children of Mary, and thus, each one of you, who are permeated by the rays of My Love and My Grace.

My wish is that next month there be twice as many present here. Open the doors of this city so that the angels may reign and souls, that have died spiritually, may rise in light of the glorious coming of Christ.

Now, I want those who are to be consecrated as Children of Mary to approach this stage so that I can bless them. Come to Me, dear children, be close to My Immaculate Heart; you must not fear. I bring you the peace and celestial happiness that your lives so need to be able to fulfill the Purpose of God that, in this time, is being carried out through this Work.

I want all the priests to open their hearts to My call. I am the Mother of ecumenism and I lead all My children towards Christ. All are deserving of the Mercy of God. All are deserving of the Grace of God. All are worthy children of God and deserving of the salvation that My Immaculate Heart grants all souls.

Today I will not only bless the Children of Mary, these seventy new children that will be part of the first groups of prayer in the different points of this city. They will be the onrd who will sow, so that new souls be able to emerge, through this impulse to pray the Holy Rosary for peace every day, so that this city may be consecrated to My Immaculate Heart.

I also come to consecrate your sacred objects, as well as all these flowers you have placed on My altar, on the sacred altar of the Lady of the Poor. You will take a flower as a remembrance of My Presence in your lives. I will also bless your rosaries, under the authority granted to Me by God.

Now let the new children, who are being consecrated in this house of the Lady of the Poor, place their left hands upon their hearts, and holding the light of their candles, confirm the Divine Presence in this place; the Presence of the Father, the Presence of the Son and the Presence of the Holy Spirit.

Today I untie a great knot so that you may be freed and thus find peace again, for if peace is in you, peace will be in this city, hearts will be converted, the sick will be healed, and all will feel more loved, for I will be present here. Each time you go through the door of this house, know that the Lady of the Poor always observes you and accompanies you with Her Love.

I come to close the wounds of your hearts, drawing out the thorns of life. I come to heal your souls, so they may ignite through My Divine Spirit. In your lives, I come to re-ignite the powerful flame of the prayer of the heart.

Today I come to give you My Love and all My Grace so that you may be blessed, be worthy deservers of the Mercy of God for all those who do not experience it and distance themselves from the Kingdom of God, stepping away from the Love and the Truth that lives in the universe.

I consecrate you. I bless you, I embrace you as a good Mother, as the Mother of all and the Mother of the New Humanity.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

Sing Mary of Nazareth and lift up your rosaries so that I may bless them.

The Lord blesses these sacred objects that symbolize the opening of the doors of Heaven in the innermost core of each soul. May these beads of prayer be permeated by My Grace and by My Light. May souls cling tightly to this celestial instruments so that they may always find the love and the path that will take them towards My Son, to His Sacred Heart.

I bless these rosaries so they may bless this city, under the authority granted to Me by the universe, in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

Carry your rosaries upon your hearts so that Heaven may enter your lives.

I thank you.

I will wait for you next month and I am happy to be able to meet you again in the spirit of faith and unity.

So be it.