Apparition of the Virgin Mary on July 13, 2018, in the city of Cologne, Germany, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús

Germany needs to re-consecrate itself to My Immaculate Heart, so that it may receive more Graces than the ones I bring to you today. But today I will carry to Heaven and in My Heart the breath of love of My children, which is what makes Me return to the world again and again.

This is why I am here, My children, so that the breath of the love of your hearts may reach not only Germany, but also the places that are most in need of the Love of God.

It is this Love so deep and real that will redeem your hearts and lives, that will have you understand the Mysteries of God, so that someday you may learn to fulfill His Will.

Today I have felt this love from your hearts, from each heart that is present, that has confessed their love for My Immaculate Heart to Me.

I wish, My children, for you to always remember this, for it is what will dissolve even more the mistakes that Germany committed in the past.

It is this love that will cause you to love the Universe even more, so that someday you may be participants in all that is guarded in the essence of Universal Life.

It is this love that will cause you to love everything unconditionally, that will awaken you to the service for those most in need; because the main reason for service here in Germany is for those who suffer spiritually, despite having everything and never lacking anything.

Although it may not seem so to you, My Children, spiritual suffering is greater than material and human suffering, for there is nothing that can dissolve it, except the Love of God, which again and again must emerge from your essences so that this Love may fill your lives and spirits, and in this way, fill the planet that is so in need of the Love of God in order to continue forward in these defining times.

Today the laws of transmutation have acted in a different way, because first you have donated the love of your hearts and surrendered to an unknown and invincible Will.

It is this Divine and Infinite Will, based on the Love of God, that has brought Me here to Germany, to bring to your hearts what is renewing and good so that, from your families and peoples, you may learn the new values of spirituality, based on the attributes that My Immaculate Heart offers to you for these times.

Through the path of service and of prayer, My children, through the Communion with Christ and the daily confession of your hearts to the Supreme Creator, is where you will find the keys to transform everything because, My children, you will learn to live the spirituality that God had planned from the beginning for Germany and Europe.

Therefore today, My children, a new cycle begins and your hearts are participants in this Grace that I bring to you; a Grace that will try to lead you into a further awakening and an awareness of all that God needs for this time and your humanity.

My children, the task here in Germany has only just begun. The soil has been prepared, the Shepherd has sown it and Mother Nature has watered it, so that new principles of brotherhood and of light can sprout here, which will help to dissolve the past and to heal hearts from all suffering.

Therefore, My children, first you must believe in the love that is in you and within you. Open yourselves to discover God's Universe of Love within, and prayer will be the basic pillar of your lives in order to find it. Because with this daily communication with Heaven, your Guardian Angels will help you find the path of love, in order to finally find the path of the truth that you need so much to know and understand, through what happens in your lives day by day.

So today, I not only stretch out My Hand for you to hold it tightly, My children, so We can unite Heaven and Earth, the Universe of God and the souls, but I also offer you My maternal Heart so that, through the Fire of My Spirit, new gifts may enter into you at this moment, and this may expand beyond your lives and your nation. Because whoever experiences the call of the Celestial Mother will learn to live the Will of God in these difficult times.

Therefore I invite you to generate among yourselves, children of Germany, an unbreakable unity that will help to foster Peace in the inner worlds and that will bring renewal to your lives and to all of your people.

Today I am here before you, as the Lady of the Most Holy Rosary, to invite you so that, by means of your consecration on this day, group prayer may be the keynote for your lives; prayer that can heal the deep levels of the souls of Germany that are still suffering the consequences of the past and the present.

Today I offer Myself to you as the Mother of Prayer, so that you may enter into My eternal school, so that together with the Angels of Heaven, you may form this new school of prayer, which on very silent and deep levels, is not only able to transform Germany, but also Europe, which needs it so much.

With this answer that your hearts have given Me to experience today's consecration, and also for those who have come from other nations to consecrate themselves, My wish, My children, is that you be able to perceive the fire of your faith that, although unknown, must always lead you to concretize the Will of God in your lives and in the nations to which you belong.

This is My message to you, My children: I wish you to be ambassadors of peace and that you foster peace through good actions, fraternal actions, peaceful actions, that may renew your consciousnesses and all those who receive this service from you.

The greatest spiritual service for the groups of prayer in Germany will be the assistance through prayer and the invocation of the Divine Mercy of My Son for all of My Children who need to receive an opportunity in these final days.

Today I will leave here, My children, finalizing and fulfilling a Mission, which you have experienced together with Me in these last months and in which all were led to collaborate out of love and brotherliness, so that Europe could receive the Graces it so much needed.

There is still much work to be done, My children. Belgium and Denmark also hope for My help someday, as well as Russia, which is in need of a great deal of Mercy.

But if the pillars of the groups of prayer are first founded in Western and Eastern Europe, they will create the necessary conditions, My children, for the Work of Love of the Divine Messengers to reach those places in the world that are also in need of Mercy.

As from now, My children, we are preparing for this moment, as well as to carry the peace and love that you have received to Asia and Oceania.

At this moment, before the Celestial Church of Christ, which opens from the Spiritual Universe, the Mother of Heaven and of Earth, the Virgin of Schoenstatt, the Lady of the Most Holy Rosary, invites Her children who are consecrating themselves today, to approach this altar blessed by Christ in order to experience this important moment of the consecration of their souls to My Immaculate Heart.

As from this moment, let the hymn of your consecration begin to be heard.

You, My children, have determined before My Immaculate Heart to form part of this first army for Germany, which will also unite Austria and Switzerland in this divine and special triangulation for the triumph of the three Sacred Hearts, of Jesus, Mary and Saint Joseph, who from this moment, in the name of God and of His Divine and Invincible Project, have offered Themselves to these three nations in order to carry out an important moment of conversion and of redemption for this part of humanity, forming glad and joyful groups of prayer that can forever carry in their hearts the Love that I will give you today.

The children who will consecrate themselves today, put your hands in a sign of reception.

As the Virgin of Schoenstatt and the Lady of the most Holy Rosary, receive from My Maternal Heart this Grace for which you have waited so long in your lives, so that this Grace may multiply and reach the hearts that suffer the most, by means of your commitment in this life of consecration to the service of prayer for humanity.

May the Lord pour out His Gifts upon you and make you partake of His Mercy.

May the Lord always make you feel His trust and plenitude, so that thousands of souls in Germany may receive the impulse of awakening through your devotion and dedication to a life of prayer, so that the Holy Rosary, a powerful weapon against evil, may be instilled in your hearts and in the world and renew the times on this planet.

You may place your hands on your heart and thank God for this day of consecration to the Maternal and Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Remember that I will always hear you, that as Mother and Servant of God I will listen to your prayers, which will especially emerge in this time from Germany, Austria and Switzerland.

Today I consecrate you as a spiritual family so that the three Sacred Hearts may be present in you and in your nations.

I bless you in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

Today you will take these roses that I am consecrating as the testimony of My Love for you, of an eternal and invincible Love, of a Love that understands and accepts, of a Love that does not question, nor judges. Of a Love of My Heart that embraces, that heals and that redeems, because it is God through My Heart in your lives forever.

I thank you for having responded to My call.

May peace always be found here in Germany.

So be it.
