APPARITION OF MARY, ROSE OF PEACE, IN THE CITY OF BUENOS AIRES, ARGENTINA, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

I have already told you, My children, that something greater exists within you that you do not know; and that within your original essence, the purity that God conceived, for each one of His children, there are many mysteries to reveal and to show to each one of your souls.

I come as your Mother, but also as your Universal Governess, as this great Mirror of Justice and of Mercy that comes to reflect upon Earth the Principles and the Gifts of God.

What the Father expects of each one of you, My children, is that you also be able to represent Him on the surface of the Earth and that you be able to be mirrors, in such likeness of what I am, that you not only bring the divine attributes to the Earth in this very critical time of humanity, but that you also, My children, come to know your own inner mysteries that the Father will reveal to you when He, with His own Hands, takes away the veils from your consciousness, a moment in which everything will be fully shown and you will remember and know who you are.

Through your daily consecration to My Immaculate Heart, you are sending an answer to the Eternal Father, so that He may count on you completely and unconditionally, because at least a part of this great flock of humanity must fulfill what the Father needs in this planetary cycle.

The tribes of Israel must exist in the four main continents of this planet, not only remembering their origins and their Divine Principles, but also being aware and available to serve the Celestial Father in the last missions that He will entrust to humanity, directly to those who have awakened and will awaken in this time.

This is part, My children, of the Infinite Plan of the Creator, a Plan that has not been fulfilled yet and has not been concretized, a Plan that is being written by your lives and your hearts, not only by the beings that are on the surface of the Earth, but also by all the beings that are in the Cosmos and are part of this great universal fraternity that God formed and created since the origin.

Now you are aware, My children, that you are not alone, but you must be still more aware of sacred knowledge and mysteries that will come to the world so as to awaken it. This will put you ahead of the events of the end of times in a more conscious and mature posture, just as God needs.

I come to bring you, My children, this revelation, because it is not written in the Sacred Bible, in truth this revelation was omitted from the Sacred Bible. Thus, My children, I am part of this Divine Word that, in the name of God, comes to be pronounced to the world through a message and the Divine Word, so that the children of the Father may be aware that there is a purpose and a goal to achieve in this cycle, which no race and no previous humanity has reached up to now.

Everyone that is present in this acute cycle of the planet, are so for a spiritual reason, experiencing within themselves the universe of the learning process and of the tests; learnings that bring you into maturity of consciousness, into an inner willingness and into the unconditional service to the Eternal Father.

There are no major tests, My children, that cannot be overcome. I give you the key of prayer as a path of communication with God, as a bridge that will always link you with the truth of existence, where your consciousnesses will be able to be completely elevated, despite how the world is. And it is in this elevation and in this constant aspiration, My children, that you will find the different aspects of God and will come to more deeply know His Sacred Names, which are true emanations of His Infinite Consciousness, of His different tasks and missions in this Universe, just as in other unknown Universes.

And so I bring you the Light of the Truth, this Light which must penetrate your hearts and souls, a Light that will always take you to the Truth and will remove you from the ignorance of the Earth. Because today I am not only here for Argentina, but also for the world, for all who hear My message in this crucial time and cry out from their hearts for the existence of Peace, not only within you but also in the world.

This elevated consciousness is what God invites you to attain, day after day, not only through the path of prayer, but also through the path of service. This will allow you, My children, to be in another vibration and in another consciousness, from where God will be able to intervene in humanity through the instruments, His children, and thus little by little dispel the chaos that is present in humanity. And in this way, you will perceive, My children, the existence that is in the Mirrors of the Cosmos, which are great powerhouses of information that have always fed your spirits and essences from the beginning.

But now, My children, the time has come to remember all these things, to re-live all these treasures that are deeply spiritual and non-material, and which will place your consciousnesses at the service of the Plan of God, because I assure you, My children, that you will know where to be and what to do at the exact time.

You and all of your brothers and sisters of humanity are a race in transition, a race that experiences the first steps of the Apocalypse, in which many mysteries will be revealed, but also incredible things will be shown by the men and the women of Earth, never seen before, which will also offend the Heart of God.

Therefore, I invite you, My children, to elevate your consciousnesses, and your souls have already made this request. This is why I come today to speak to you about all these things, My children, because you will be nourished by the Non-material Source rather than by the information that humanity itself encourages, which confuses hearts, and which are not true.

As the Mother of the Most High, the Universal Mother and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I come in this time and outside of the Church, to expand the human consciousness, which each day is more asleep, more hypnotized and indifferent to the universal reality.

It will be the elevation of your consciousnesses and hearts, and of all those who aspire to awaken, that will place the human consciousness on another level, in which the Presence of God and of His Source will be able to be perceived and bring the Truth to your hearts and consciousnesses.

What I need, My children, is that you build the New Time through your examples and the teachings that My Son has given to you, not only through the Gospels, but in His Sacred instructions, through all the impulses that He has given to you in recent times.

But the time has come, My children, for the consciousness of the Divine Hierarchy to be shown and make itself felt in humanity, because the human race is at the edge of the abyss and I have the task, My children, of rescuing you and awakening you, and of taking you to the Heart of the Redeemer, where you will be safe and protected. But I also have the spiritual mission, entrusted to Me by the Archangel Gabriel, of revealing the true Consciousness of God and that of Our Sacred Hearts, which not only refer to a holy image.

This is the time in which your consciousnesses and minds can expand and the center of your heart be what governs your lives. In this way, your spirits will prompt you to experience changes without fear, without restrictions or doubts, so that you may represent My Son on the surface of the Earth as His apostles, and so that you not only live His teachings and His example, but you carry the relief of God to your brothers and sisters, to those most in need, and that you learn to sustain your own nations through the instrument of prayer and of service, which will allow Me to continue to firmly stomp on the head of evil and more souls will be freed from the hells, more consciousness will recover their faith and hope in the Eternal Father, and nothing more will separate you from the Truth, because you will be able to prepare the glorious coming of Christ; not only by living the Truth of Christ within you, but the advent of His Consciousness in humanity, which nothing or nobody will stop, because in the most unexpected moment He will return.

That is why I come as His Mother and as His faithful Slave to inform you and announce to you, My children, that this moment is drawing closer and He will be your Great Patriarch, your Governor, your Leader, your great and infinite Love. And you will have Him before your eyes, like the apostles did, after He resurrected. But now, you will not touch His Wound as Thomas touched it, rather you, My children, will touch His Body and His Sacred Vestments because He will come to embrace you in the name of Love and to definitely establish redemption.

And so, My children, let your hearts in this moment of crisis not lose hope. Be willing to reorganize your lives through group life, be willing to experience communitary life in the Light-Communities that Our Sacred Hearts and the Sacred Consciousnesses of the Universe requested to be founded many years ago, at certain points in South America, so that humanity, which would be suffering during this time, could manage to find a place where it could see God, feel Him in the depths of their hearts and know with certainty that nothing is lost, in spite of the chaos that reigns in the world.

These Light-Communities, My children, are the Islands of Salvation for the entire humanity. Thus, My children, know that the sacred values of God are still present on the Earth and in these places.

But you must fully live detachment, neutrality and trust, so that your lives may gradually change, little by little, and know that God, through the Light-Communities, places His Sacred Aspects, each one of His Sacred Names, so that His Attributes may feed your spirits and all those who arrive there to experience the presence of Love, of brotherhood, of solidarity, of cooperation and of Truth.

Because We are present there, among you and within you. There you will find a refuge for your spiritual and inner needs. There you will find support in following the principles of brotherhood and group life so that all may remain in order and in harmony.

The Islands of Salvation are for those who want to truly transform and surrender their lives into the hands of God, in a way that they never have before. The Islands of Salvation are places for the families, for the main cell of the Plan of God which must be protected and safeguarded by the Hierarchy so that family, as a spiritual archetype, may continue to last throughout time and not lose the happiness and the love that conceived it, but rather they may always receive the Grace of God so that all those who were born and will be born may also be worthy children of God, a part of the universal family.

But the world has its attention on other things; this is why the time has come, My children, that your Heavenly Mother reveals to you that which the Universe has held for a long time and, at certain periods, in the course of the history of humanity has touched this race through awakening and knowledge, through the experience that the sacred peoples, the first peoples that had that managed to fulfill the Plan of God, before they were exterminated.

This teaching, the form of inner contact with the Universe and with God, must be re-acquired by humanity so that it may be in the correct attunement and with the correct protection.

Now, My children, as a testimony that it is important to maintain this universal family, as Mother of the Most High and Lady of Argentina, listening to the instrumental of the hymn of consecration of the Children of Mary, the time has come for those who will be consecrated today to come up here to receive My words and My blessing, knowing that I continue to trust in all those who have already been consecrated, and in those who, beyond the human appearance or events, are being consecrated to serve the Mother of God, the Governess of the Universe and of the Earth, the Mirror of Justice and of Mercy.

So, children, rejoice, be glad and experience hope, which My maternal Heart is giving to you today in this consecration, of allowing your souls and essences to be thoroughly awakened and aware so that your lives may completely be a part of the Attributes of God.

This evening, during which all of Argentina is lovingly blessed by the Mother of God and in the presence of the angels of Heaven, in you, My children, I ignite the Original Purity, so that it may make you free in spirit and in body, in soul and in heart, knowing that God is within you and loves you, and that He has the authority to heal all things, no matter how difficult and impossible they may seem.

You, My children, are today committing yourselves before My Immaculate Heart to not only pray for the families of Argentina, but also to pray for Peace in Argentina, Paraguay and Uruguay.

With Me you have the spiritual mission of protecting the Project that God has thought of for this time and for this place in South America, where the Star of the New Jerusalem must shine, which will allow Peace and Love to be reborn in all hearts.

I consecrate you, as I have already consecrated you many times, but now I consecrate you as My children, as My dear children who will walk by My side being part of the armies of Peace, of the powerful commands of prayer of the heart.

I also invite you, My children, to practice and to live service for your neighbor and for the Kingdoms of Nature, especially for the very poor villages of Argentina, many of which are to be found here in Buenos Aires, where hearts wait for a smile, for a gesture of love, for an embrace of compassion to be able to bear the misery they experience in this time.

But, My children, if your hearts rise up to Heaven through the impulse of prayer, and your prayers are deeply true, not only you will continue to be under My Mantle, but so will all the poorest among the poor.

Because the Mother of God will continue working spiritually so that the New Humanity may be in Argentina and may receive the return of Christ. Amen.

I bless you and give you My maternal embrace.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Today I leave you My Light, My Affection and My Consolation so that you may take it within you and share it with those who most need it; in this way, the powerful network of My Love will reach the whole world.

I thank you for responding to My call!

And I will listen to the hymn of your consecration.

See you soon.
