ANNUAL APPARITION OF THE VIRGIN MARY AT THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, ON THE OCCASION OF THE CELEBRATION OF THE MOTHER OF THE DIVINE CONCEPTION OF THE TRINITY

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Hope is that which must not be lost in your hearts and in the world, because hope is a Sacred Light of God that fills Creation through His patient and mature Love.

Contemplate the coming time with hope, under the spirit of My Peace, which blesses you today so that God may bless humanity tonight.

For this reason once again I express, to each one of My children, the abundant and infinite Graces that spring at this moment from My Immaculate Heart and My Hands.

May this Grace, which comes from the Light of the Hope of God, renew you at this moment, so that your consciousnesses may confirm themselves to God, to the Plan and the Will that He has written for each one of His children.

Through the Graces that spring from My Heart, I come to heal the wounded and outraged surface of the planet.

Through this special day to your Heavenly Mother, I come to appease those who struggle, I come to appease those who battle and all those who promote the inner, spiritual and physical war; because it is important to My Beloved Son that, through this future of hope that must draw near you and the world, the world and humanity may be reborn in the Love of God.

See how great this Love is, an infinite and inexplicable Love, which allows the Mother of God to be here with Her children today and with all those who attentively listen to My Words.

In this coming 2025, My Beloved Son already has a path drawn and delineated. It is the last stage of His preparatory path, the spiritual foundations that He needs to finish laying, through the souls who confirm themselves, so that He may prepare His Return, which draws nearer to the Earth with each passing day.

For this reason, beloved children, be reborn in the hope of this Love that My Immaculate Heart brings to you today. Drink from this fountain of Grace and purification, of renewal and atonement that I bring you today.

Remember what I told you a few days ago. Your Heavenly Mother, the Lady of Figueira, has opened this fountain at the foot of the Sacred Tree so that, in this coming year and in the coming days, souls may receive a spiritual atonement, one of the last and great atonements of God.

For this reason, I encourage you to move forward, regardless of the experiences you have lived, regardless of the past that has been traveled up to this very present, regardless of any circumstance or reason, regardless of any situation or even any error.

Tonight, My beloveds, in this spirit of vigil, love and celebration, before the Most Blessed Eucharistic Body of My Son, which many of you will adore in vigil and reverence, I invite you to enter the portal of reconciliation and peace.

My Son sends Me to tell you, through the Voice of His Holy Mother, beloved Mother of all of you, that you cannot enter the coming year with inner or external conflicts. You must enter it with hearts free from apprehensions and disturbances.

See here, My children, on the inner planes, this Heart of a Mother that again gives of itself to all so that you may cross this portal of Grace and reconciliation tonight.

For this reason, in the Name of God, Our Creator Father, Lord of hope, of renewal and of life, on this night of solemnity of the Mother of God, reconcile among yourselves, love one another again in trust and faith; because there is no other reason for being here at this moment and in this Work, but to prepare this fertile ground of your hearts for the Return of Christ, because My Son cannot find His companions disoriented, confounded or restless.

In this 2025, He needs to find you steady in the commitment to God; in the absolute trust that each step you take is to live a learning experience, so that you may learn to mature in love, but also in forgiveness.

I want you to reverence this Grace that My Heart brings to you at this moment, because God needs your hearts to be open, and I see here hearts that are not open. However, through My Maternal and Divine Love, through My offering and also My sacrifice for each one of My children, through faith, which is a powerful and inextinguishable power, through the power of forgiveness and of Divine Grace, I can open your hearts, because for Me there is nothing impossible.

May the walkers of the cosmos arise. May they place their swords at the feet of the Governor and Lord. May they renounce their expectations and ideals. May they relieve their hearts in forgiveness and love. May they be reborn through the power of the Holy Spirit, which I bring to you today.

And in the emptiness that you are invited to live to attain inner divestment and surrender, in this night of great planetary suffering, when many still struggle among nations and peoples, may you, who have been so deeply replenished and filled with Graces, abundant and unknown Graces that you still cannot measure, be reborn in the Love of Christ, My Beloved Son, and thus enter this new year under the spirit and the impulse of the Hope of God.

For this reason, tonight, My beloveds, in the name of a divided, darkened and disturbed humanity, in the name of a fragmented universal family, purify your hands in My fountain of Grace, wash your faces through My Light and feel the freshness and renewal of My Maternal Love, the Love of the Mother and Lady of the apostles and disciples of Christ who, in this time, already know how to say 'yes' to the Will of God and His Designs.

In an unexpected way, God deters the pencil with which He writes in His Book, to wait for the response of His children, His creatures.

What is it that the Celestial Father will write in the coming time, in 2025?

What will be the coherent and consolidated responses that His children will give Him?

What will be the strengthening that His children will offer to Him, before all Graces received, so that He may write His Will through His children, regardless of the errors or the lessons?

By any chance, will the Celestial Father be able to see His Mirror of Unity reflected in you, so that you may recognize the communion with the Heavens, with the Primordial Source, with the Most High Lord?

Your lives are an open book to God, in which He can read what is most intimate and inner; remember that the essence of the children of God can never die or disappear, even from those who are lost in this world.

However, you, who have everything in Heaven and on Earth and, above all, in your hearts, give honor to the Creator God tonight, for His infinite Paternity, Love and Grace for His children. Because when you believe that you will not be able to do or will not be able to live anything that He asks of you, you will be able to do it through the Love of Christ, because He will give you the strength and conviction to do it.

However, do not forget, My beloveds, to cross the door of reconciliation through My Heart and to live this reconciliation with your brothers and sisters tonight.

The doors of hope are open before the inner worlds that decide to cross them tonight, because hope is what the world needs. Souls need to live hope so that they may no longer live in depression and agony.

Through this atonement that is granted tonight in the name of the merits of Christ, God grants the opportunity of renewal.

Remember that you are here to live together, with hope. This is the aspiration of My Son.

Let us celebrate now the Holy Communion with Our Lord, so that through this Blessed Sacrament granted by Christ, as many souls as possible may live a synthesis, at this moment, in the innermost depth of the heart, to enter the portal of hope, of faith and renewal, that My Heart grants to you tonight.

For a moment, I will withdraw to tend to humanity, but I will return at the moment of the transubstantiation of the bread and the wine.

I invite all those present and those who are listening to participate in this Spiritual Communion, in the name of and in honor of Mary, the Mother of God, and in the hope that is Christ.

Let us celebrate so that the angels may make themselves present at this moment, so that peace may be established and it may be possible to put an end to wars, to inner and external conflicts, and as many hearts as possible may enter the portal of hope, which the Grace of My Heart opens tonight.

I am waiting for you.

Let us celebrate.

Upon concluding the Eucharistic Celebration, Friar Elías shared an important request of the Divine Mother.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

Before we withdraw, we would like to announce to all, at the request of our Mother, that as from today, and until January 6, that is, until the end of the next Marathon of Divine Mercy, all those who come to Marian Centers and participate in them and, mainly, receive the Sacrament of Confession, Our Lady, at the request of Christ, has announced that She will give a plenary indulgence. This opportunity of indulgence will conclude at the next Marathon of Divine Mercy, on January 5 and 6, when we will have live Apparitions of Christ.

At the request of our Mother, all those who are here in São Paulo and Minas Gerais are invited to be present to accompany Christ in the impulse He will give for the next year.

And all those who participate through the broadcast are also invited to come to the Marian Centers and the Marian Sanctuaries in the world, to receive this plenary indulgence, which is a special moment of atonement and spiritual forgiveness that the Father will grant during these days.

Let us benefit from this moment and spiritual opportunity that the Hierarchy gives us.

Good night!
